

SB 6886 - DIGEST

Provides that if more than three percent of the voting-age population in a given county speak a common native language other than English, the county must recruit staff members and poll workers who are fluent in that native language and in English to assist with elections.

Provides that if a voter cannot speak English, he or she may use an interpreter to communicate with election officials.