

SR 8694 - DIGEST

Expresses appreciation to the County Mental Health Professionals and crisis workers whose willingness to accept grave personal risks daily in order to provide the highest quality health care to the most dangerous, yet vulnerable, patients serves as a testament to their exemplary commitment to the people of this state.