

SENATE BILL REPORT

SB 6619

As of February 2, 2010

Title: An act relating to record check information.

Brief Description: Including approved private schools in the superintendent of public instruction's record check information rules.

Sponsors: Senators McAuliffe and King.

Brief History:

Committee Activity: Early Learning & K-12 Education: 2/01/10.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON EARLY LEARNING & K-12 EDUCATION

Staff: Susan Mielke (786-7422)

Background: Applicants for educator certification and applicants for employment with approved private schools; and public school districts, educational service districts, the State Center for Childhood Deafness and Hearing Loss, the State School for the Blind, and their contractors must get a record check through the Washington State Patrol and the Federal Bureau of Investigation if the employee will have regularly scheduled unsupervised access to children. The Federal Bureau of Indian Affairs funded schools may use the process to perform record checks for their employees and applicants for employment.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction (SPI) is authorized to make rules regarding access to and review of information obtained based on the record checks. SPI must provide access to the record check information to the public school districts, the Washington state center for childhood deafness and hearing loss, the state school for the blind, the educational service districts, and the federal bureau of Indian affairs-funded schools. SPI is not currently authorized to provide the information to approved private schools.

Summary of Bill: The SPI is authorized to adopt rules regarding record checks and access to record check information for private schools.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Requested on January 26, 2010.
