

HB 1465 - DIGEST

Aids the development of facilities used for public health, safety, or justice purposes by allowing an extended increased levy period and by providing that the rental rates agreed upon in city building and land leases are reasonable when rates for comparable spaces are not available.