HB 1364-S by House Committee on Environment (originally sponsored by Representatives Tharinger, Zeiger, Moscoso, Crouse, Liias, McCoy, Fitzgibbon, Uptegrove, Maxwell, Morrell, Pollet, and Fey)

Adopting the Washington small rechargeable battery stewardship act.

(AS OF HOUSE 2ND READING 3/06/13)

Finds that: (1) It is important to ensure that all entities supplying small rechargeable batteries to users in the state, whether as stand alone units or as easily removable components of products, bear the same battery stewardship obligations;

(2) Addressing certain existing and future barriers to implementation of voluntary industry programs to collect and recycle used small rechargeable batteries will facilitate these interests; and

(3) The opportunity exists for the state to encourage the continuation of existing private mechanisms that ensure the proper stewardship of used small rechargeable batteries, while avoiding any burden on the state for enforcement responsibilities.

Provides that the act is void if a federal law, or a combination of federal laws, takes effect that establishes a national program for the collection and recycling of both used nonrechargeable batteries and used small rechargeable batteries.

Establishing statewide indicators of educational health.

(AS OF SENATE 2ND READING 3/06/13)

Establishes statewide indicators of educational system health.

Requires the state board of education, with assistance from the office of the superintendent of public instruction, the workforce training and education coordinating board, and the student achievement council, to establish a process for identifying realistic but challenging system-wide performance goals and measurements for the established indicators.

Requires the state board of education, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and the student achievement council to align their own strategic planning and education reform efforts with the statewide indicators and performance goals.

SB 5867 by Senators Baumgartner, Ericksen, and Holmquist Newbry

Modifying the number of judges on the state supreme court.

Finds that: (1) The state Constitution provides that there shall be five supreme court judges; and

(2) The legislature has seen fit by statute to add four additional justices to that august body.

Requires existing judges of the state supreme court to meet in public to draw straws to eliminate the four additional judges.

Requires any money saved from this elimination to be used to fund basic education.
