SENATE BILL 6376

Passed Legislature - 2016 Regular Session

State of Washington 64th Legislature 2016 Regular Session

By Senators Fraser, Roach, McCoy, Conway, Hasegawa, Padden, Carlyle, Liias, Nelson, O'Ban, Darneille, Chase, and Jayapal

Read first time 01/18/16. Referred to Committee on Human Services, Mental Health & Housing.

- 1 AN ACT Relating to recognizing human trafficking awareness day;
- 2 reenacting and amending RCW 1.16.050; and creating a new section.
- 3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:
- 4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:
- 5 (a) Human trafficking is a horrendous crime and activity in which 6 force, fraud, or coercion is used to force adults into labor or 7 commercial sexual exploitation, or force children and youth into 8 child commercial sexual exploitation;
- (b) In 2002, Washington was the first state in the United States 9 to create a state antitrafficking of persons task force; safety 10 11 for noncitizen, nonresident persons recruited 12 international matchmaking organizations for the purpose of providing 13 dating, matrimonial, or social referral services; and a definition of 14 human trafficking crimes at the state level;
- 15 (c) In 2003, Washington was the first state to enact a state 16 crime of human trafficking;
- 17 (d) In 2004, an advisory committee on trafficking was convened by 18 the United States attorney's office for the Western district of
- 19 Washington, creating a multidisciplinary team to collaborate locally,
- 20 nationally, and internationally;

p. 1 SB 6376.SL

- (e) According to the Washington state attorney general's office, fifty-five percent of global internet child pornography is initiated in the United States, with the child victims often being runaways, troubled, or homeless youth;
- (f) The Washington anti-trafficking response network reports that they have seen cases of young men and boys exploited in the construction industry, and immigrants and others exploited by restaurants, small businesses, agriculture, and the commercial sex industry; and
- 10 (g) The Washington state legislature enacted forty 11 antitrafficking laws between 2002 and 2015, and has been recognized
 12 by shared hope international and the polaris project as being among 13 the very top states in the country for antitrafficking advocacy and 14 legislation.
- 15 (2) The legislature intends to recognize and honor Washington 16 state's efforts to reduce human trafficking by designating the 17 eleventh day of January in each year as "human trafficking awareness 18 day."
- 19 Sec. 2. RCW 1.16.050 and 2014 c 177 s 2 and 2014 c 168 s 1 are 20 each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
 - (1) The following are state legal holidays:
- 22 (a) Sunday;

21

29

32

- 23 (b) The first day of January, commonly called New Year's Day;
- (c) The third Monday of January, celebrated as the anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr.;
- 26 (d) The third Monday of February, to be known as Presidents' Day 27 and celebrated as the anniversary of the births of Abraham Lincoln 28 and George Washington;
 - (e) The last Monday of May, commonly known as Memorial Day;
- 30 (f) The fourth day of July, the anniversary of the Declaration of 31 Independence;
 - (g) The first Monday in September, to be known as Labor Day;
- 33 (h) The eleventh day of November, to be known as Veterans' Day;
- 34 (i) The fourth Thursday in November, to be known as Thanksgiving 35 Day;
- 36 (j) The Friday immediately following the fourth Thursday in November, to be known as Native American Heritage Day; and
- 38 (k) The twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas 39 Day.

p. 2 SB 6376.SL

(2) Employees of the state and its political subdivisions, except employees of school districts and except those nonclassified employees of institutions of higher education who hold appointments or are employed under contracts to perform services for periods of less than twelve consecutive months, are entitled to one paid holiday per calendar year in addition to those specified in this section. Each employee of the state or its political subdivisions may select the day on which the employee desires to take the additional holiday provided for in this section after consultation with the employer pursuant to guidelines to be promulgated by rule of the appropriate personnel authority, or in the case of local government by ordinance or resolution of the legislative authority.

- (3) Employees of the state and its political subdivisions, including employees of school districts and those nonclassified employees of institutions of higher education who hold appointments or are employed under contracts to perform services for periods of less than twelve consecutive months, are entitled to two unpaid holidays per calendar year for a reason of faith or conscience or an organized activity conducted under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or religious organization. This includes employees of public institutions of higher education, including community colleges, technical colleges, and workforce training programs. The employee may select the days on which the employee desires to take the two unpaid holidays after consultation with the employer pursuant to guidelines to be promulgated by rule of the appropriate personnel authority, or in the case of local government by ordinance or resolution of the legislative authority. If employee prefers to take the two unpaid holidays on specific days for a reason of faith or conscience, or an organized activity conducted under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or religious organization, the employer must allow the employee to do so unless the employee's absence would impose an undue hardship on the employer or the employee is necessary to maintain public safety. Undue hardship shall have the meaning established in rule by the office of financial management under RCW 43.41.109.
- (4) If any of the state legal holidays specified in this section are also federal legal holidays but observed on different dates, only the state legal holidays are recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees of the state and its political subdivisions. However, for port districts and the law enforcement and public transit employees

- 5 (a) Other than Sunday, falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday 6 is the legal holiday; or
- 7 (b) Falls upon a Saturday, the preceding Friday is the legal 8 holiday.
- 9 (6) Nothing in this section may be construed to have the effect 10 of adding or deleting the number of paid holidays provided for in an 11 agreement between employees and employers of political subdivisions 12 of the state or as established by ordinance or resolution of the 13 local government legislative authority.
- 14 (7) The legislature declares that the following days are 15 recognized as provided in this subsection, but may not be considered 16 legal holidays for any purpose:
- 17 (a) The thirteenth day of January, recognized as Korean-American day;
 - (b) The twelfth day of October, recognized as Columbus day;
- 20 (c) The ninth day of April, recognized as former prisoner of war 21 recognition day;
- 22 (d) The twenty-sixth day of January, recognized as Washington 23 army and air national guard day;
- 24 (e) The seventh day of August, recognized as purple heart 25 recipient recognition day;
- 26 (f) The second Sunday in October, recognized as Washington state 27 children's day;
 - (g) The sixteenth day of April, recognized as Mother Joseph day;
- 29 (h) The fourth day of September, recognized as Marcus Whitman 30 day;
- 31 (i) The seventh day of December, recognized as Pearl Harbor 32 remembrance day;
- (j) The twenty-seventh day of July, recognized as national Korean war veterans armistice day;
- 35 (k) The nineteenth day of February, recognized as civil liberties 36 day of remembrance;
- 37 (1) The nineteenth day of June, recognized as Juneteenth, a day 38 of remembrance for the day the slaves learned of their freedom; 39 ((and))

p. 4 SB 6376.SL

- 1 (m) The thirtieth day of March, recognized as welcome home 2 Vietnam veterans day; and
- 3 (n) The eleventh day of January, recognized as human trafficking 4 awareness day.

Passed by the Senate February 16, 2016. Passed by the House March 1, 2016. Approved by the Governor March 10, 2016. Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 11, 2016.
