

HB 2279 - DIGEST

Allows a police officer to arrest and take into custody, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that the person is in violation of an impaired driving offense.

Requires that the person be arrested, be booked into jail, and remain in custody for not less than six hours.