

SB 6521 - DIGEST

Allows a recycling company or nonprofit entity to collect and transport recyclable materials from a buy-back center, or drop-box, from a commercial or industrial generator of recyclable materials, on an unscheduled and nonroutine basis from a residential generator of recyclable materials when the recyclable materials collected are not specifically identified in the minimum levels of service established in a local solid waste management plan.