

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2018-4652, by Representatives Maycumber and Kretz

1 WHEREAS, From as young as three years old Rocksie began competing 2 in rodeos, where she quickly excelled and showcased her prowess; and

3 WHEREAS, Most nine year olds are starting their second semester
4 of fourth grade, Rocksie is busy claiming the Indian National Finals
5 Rodeo, Ladies World Barrel Racer title; and

6 WHEREAS, Her mother Ashley, father Justus, two sisters Hartlyn
7 and Gracyn, and the entire community of the Colville Indian 8 Reservation are so proud of her; and

9 WHEREAS, Rocksie's connection with her horse Roo may remind all 10 of us that trust and love are the foundations of every winning 11 relationship; and

12 WHEREAS, Rocksie's patience, determination, and grit enabled her 13 to complete such a monumental feat, she has remained humble 14 throughout the ride; and

15 WHEREAS, Rocksie may be underestimated by some, the expectations
16 she has of herself and Roo exemplify the self-confidence we all 17 strive to possess; and

18 WHEREAS, Rocksie may be light as a feather, her will is as strong 19 as Roo's legs; and

20 WHEREAS, Roo may carry Rocksie at blistering speeds in the arena, 21 their community will carry them in spirit across the country to 22 Arlington, Texas for the American Rodeo; and

