
SENATE BILL 6188

State of Washington 65th Legislature 2018 Regular Session

By Senators Dhingra, O'Ban, Wilson, Van De Wege, and Kuderer

Read first time 01/10/18. Referred to Committee on Law & Justice.

1 AN ACT Relating to fairness in disciplinary actions of peace
2 officers who appear on a prosecuting attorney's potential impeachment
3 list; adding a new section to chapter 10.93 RCW; and creating a new 4 section.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The United States supreme court has 7 consistently found that prosecutors have the duty to disclose
8 potentially exculpatory evidence to defense attorneys prior to trial.
9 Some of the information that is being disclosed about government 10 witnesses, often law enforcement officers, has not been substantiated
11 or proven to any degree. This act prohibits a law enforcement agency 12 from taking punitive action against a peace officer solely because 13 the officer's name was placed on a potential impeachment list. This 14 act specifically does not prohibit a law enforcement agency from 15 taking punitive or personnel action against a peace officer based on 16 the underlying acts or omissions for which that officer's name was 17 placed on the list.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 10.93
19 RCW to read as follows:

1 A disciplinary action or any other adverse personnel action may 2 not be undertaken by a law enforcement agency against a peace officer
3 solely because that officer's name has been placed on a list
4 maintained by a prosecuting attorney's office of recurring witnesses
5 for whom there is known potential impeachment information, or that 6 the officer's name may otherwise be subject to disclosure pursuant to 7 Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). This section does not prohibit 8 a law enforcement agency from taking disciplinary action or any other 9 adverse personnel action against a peace officer based on the 10 underlying acts or omissions for which that officer's name was placed 11 on a prosecutor-maintained list, or may otherwise be subject to 12 disclosure pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), if the 13 actions taken by the law enforcement agency otherwise conform to the 14 rules and procedures adopted by the law enforcement agency as 15 determined through collective bargaining.
