EFFECT: Reduces funding in the Department of Commerce for grants to support the building, maintenance, service, and operations costs of permanent supportive housing projects. Increases funding for the Health Care Authority to implement new Housing and Recovery through Peer Service (HARPs) teams.

FISCAL IMPACT: No net change to appropriated levels. Increases General Fund-State by $1,382,000 at the Health Care Authority and reduces General Fund-State by the same amount at the Department of Commerce.
