AN ACT Relating to reasonable public safety measures to prevent dangerous individuals from acquiring ammunition; amending RCW 9.41.080 and 9.41.110; reenacting and amending RCW 9.41.010; adding new sections to chapter 9.41 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) Violent felons and other persons prohibited from owning firearms sometimes evade controls intended to prevent them from acquiring firearms or refuse to surrender firearms as the law requires. The legislature finds a compelling interest in preventing dangerous individuals who illegally acquire firearms from enjoying easy access to ammunition.

(2) The legislature finds that other states have adopted reasonable ammunition regulations that promote public safety.

(3) The legislature finds a compelling interest in prohibiting violent felons and other individuals lawfully prohibited from owning a firearm from owning ammunition.

(4) The legislature finds a compelling interest in requiring licenses for all ammunition sellers and background checks for all ammunition sales should federal law change to allow use of the... national instant criminal background check system in order to keep violent felons and other prohibited persons from owning ammunition.

(5) The legislature finds that the public supports laws regulating ammunition sales. A survey conducted by Fox News found that eighty percent of respondents supported laws requiring background checks on purchasers of ammunition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.41 RCW
to read as follows:
A person is guilty of the crime of unlawful possession of ammunition if the person is prohibited from possessing a firearm under RCW 9.41.040 and the person owns, has in his or her possession, or has in his or her control, any ammunition. Unlawful possession of ammunition is a gross misdemeanor punishable according to chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 9.41 RCW
to read as follows:
(1) The provisions of RCW 9.41.340 and 9.41.345 regarding notification of family members and other requirements before a law enforcement agency returns a privately owned firearm shall apply in the same manner to a law enforcement agency's return of any privately owned ammunition.
(2) The provisions of RCW 9.41.350 and 9.41.352 regarding voluntary waiver of firearm rights shall apply in the same manner to waiver of ammunition possession rights.
(3) The provisions of RCW 9.41.800, 9.41.801, 9.41.802, and 9.41.804 regarding surrender of weapons or licenses shall apply in the same manner to surrender of ammunition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 9.41 RCW
to read as follows:
(1) Under federal law as it exists on the effective date of this section, a dealer may not use the national instant criminal background check system to initiate a check for a transfer of ammunition. If federal law is amended to authorize use of the national instant criminal background check system for ammunition transfers, it is the intent of the legislature that a dealer conduct a background check before delivering any ammunition to a purchaser or transferee.
(2) Beginning on the date that is thirty days after the attorney general certifies that federal law has been amended to authorize use of the national instant criminal background check system for ammunition transfers, a dealer must then initiate a check of that system before completing any ammunition transfer.

(3) The attorney general shall notify dealers at the time he or she certifies that federal law has been amended to authorize the use of the national instant criminal background check system for ammunition transfers.

(4) Background checks are not required for ammunition sales occurring at a duly licensed, lawfully operated shooting range or target facility, provided the ammunition is at all times kept within the facility's premises.

The license fee for pistols shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars. The license fee for firearms other than pistols shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars. A true record in triplicate shall be made of every pistol or semiautomatic assault rifle sold, in a book kept for the purpose, the form of which may be prescribed by the director of licensing and shall be personally signed by the purchaser and by the person effecting the sale, each in the presence of the other, and shall contain the date of sale, the caliber, make, model and manufacturer's number of the weapon, the name, address, occupation, and place of birth of the purchaser, and a statement signed by the purchaser that he or she is not ineligible under state or federal law to possess a firearm.

One copy shall within six hours be sent by certified mail to the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county of which the purchaser is a resident, or the state pursuant to RCW 9.41.090; the duplicate the dealer shall within seven days send to the director of licensing; the triplicate the dealer shall retain for six years.

Subsections (2) through (9) of this section shall not apply to sales at wholesale.

The dealer's licenses authorized to be issued by this section are general licenses covering all sales by the licensee within the effective period of the licenses. The department shall provide a single application form for dealer's licenses and a single license form which shall indicate the type or types of licenses granted.

Except as provided in RCW 9.41.090, every city, town, and political subdivision of this state is prohibited from requiring the purchaser to secure a permit to purchase or from requiring the dealer to secure an individual permit for each sale.
NEW SECTION.  Sec. 8.  A new section is added to chapter 9.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The sale of ammunition may only occur in a face-to-face transaction with the seller unless the purchaser is:

(2) An intentional violation of subsection (1) of this section is a misdemeanor.

(3) Any violation of subsection (1) of this section is not reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business and is an unfair and deceptive act or practice and an unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce in violation of RCW 19.86.020.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 9.  This act takes effect January 1, 2021.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 10.  If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
