

SENATE RESOLUTION

8615

By Senators Ericksen, Nguyen, Bailey, Keiser, Takko, Hunt, Carlyle, Dhingra, Braun, Randall, Brown, Wagoner, Rivers, Walsh, Cleveland, Wilson, L., Hawkins, Warnick, Holy, Zeiger, Honeyford, Padden, Fortunato, Short, Schoesler, King, and Hasegawa

1 WHEREAS, Taiwan shares a historical and close relationship marked 2 by strong bilateral trade, educational and cultural exchanges, and 3 tourism with the United States and the State of Washington; and

4 WHEREAS, Taiwan, the United States, and the State of Washington
5 all cherish dearly the common values of freedom, democracy, human 6 rights, and the rule of law; and

7 WHEREAS, The United States is Taiwan's second largest trading
8 partner and the second largest destination of Taiwan's outward 9 investment, while Taiwan is the tenth largest trading partner of the 10 United States, with bilateral trade in goods and in services having 11 reached 86.8 billion dollars in 2017; and

12 WHEREAS, Taiwan and the State of Washington have enjoyed a long 13 and mutually beneficial relationship with the prospect of further 14 growth, and Taiwan was Washington's sixth largest export destination 15 in 2017; and

16 WHEREAS, Taiwan is the seventh largest export destination for 17 United States agricultural goods, and has traditionally ranked among 18 the top three importers of Washington wheat; and

19 WHEREAS, The State of Washington welcomes opportunities for an 20 even closer economic partnership to increase trade and investment
21 through agreements between the United States and Taiwan to boost 22 stronger exports from Washington to Taiwan and create greater 23 benefits for all citizens of Washington; and

1 WHEREAS, This year marks the fortieth anniversary of the 2 enactment of the Taiwan Relations Act, which codified in law the 3 legal basis for continued commercial and cultural relations 4 between the United States and Taiwan; and

5 WHEREAS, Taiwan, as a willing and contributing member of the 6 world community, has worked with the United States to address 7 regional and global challenges under the mechanism of the United 8 States-Taiwan Global Cooperation and Training Framework, and 9 jointly conducted capacity building programs for regional 10 experts in areas of public health, women empowerment, energy 11 efficiency, and bridging digital gaps; and

12 WHEREAS, Taiwan has proven to be a valuable contributor in a 13 broad range of global issues, through providing humanitarian 14 assistance/disaster relief, safeguarding cybersecurity, fighting 15 against terrorism, and jointly tackling transnational crime; and

16 WHEREAS, It is appropriate that Taiwan be permitted
17 meaningful participation in various international organizations
18 that impact public health, international safety, and the global 19 environment, including the World Health Organization, the 20 International Civil Aviation Organization, the United Nations
21 Framework Convention on Climate Change, and the International 22 Criminal Police Organization;

23 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

24 (1) That the Washington State Senate reaffirms its 25 commitment to the strong and deepening relationship between the 26 people of Taiwan and the State of Washington; and

27 (2) That the Washington State Senate supports Taiwan's 28 participation in international organizations that impact the 29 global trade, health, safety, and the well-being of the twenty-30 three million people in Taiwan; and

31 (3) That the Washington State Senate welcomes the periodic 32 trade talks under the United States-Taiwan Trade and Investment
33 Framework Agreement, and the signing of bilateral trade
34 agreements between the United States and Taiwan in the process
35 of closer economic integration.

36 I, Brad Hendrickson, Secretary of the Senate, 37 do hereby certify that this is a true and

1 correct copy of Senate Resolution 8615,
