

HB 1750 - DIGEST

Requires the civil service commission, when a vacant position is to be filled in a county sheriff's office, to supply the names of five, instead of three, persons who are highest on the eligibility list to the appointing authority for consideration for the job class.