By Representative Rude

1 On page 6, line 5, after "(8)" insert "(a) An establishment or
2 entertainer may not provide, or offer to provide, adult entertainment
3 in a private performance area. Adult entertainment may occur only when 4 it is in the presence of, and is visually observable by, an employee
5 who is not an entertainer.

6 (b) Any area of the establishment that customers are allowed to 7 access may not be separated or obscured by a door, wall, curtain,
8 drape, partition, or room divider, except for restrooms and any area
9 of which the entire interior is clearly and completely visible from 10 the exterior of the area. This subsection does not preclude the 11 installation or maintenance of any wall or column that is essential to 12 the structural integrity of the building.

EFFECT:

- Prohibits an establishment or entertainer from providing adult entertainment in a private performance area. Specifies that adult entertainment may occur only when it is in the presence of, and is visually observable by, an employee who is not an entertainer.
- Prohibits any area of the establishment that customers are allowed to access from being separated or obscured by a door, wall, curtain, drape, partition, or room divider (except for restrooms and any area of which the entire interior is clearly and completely visible from the exterior of the area). Specifies that this restriction does not preclude the installation or maintenance of any wall or column that is essential to the structural integrity of the building.
- Modifies other provisions in the underlying bill, including the restrictions on leasing fees and the preemption provisions, to account for the amendment's prohibition of private performance areas.
- Corrects a grammatical error.
