2 "districts" on page 2, line 4 and insert "A county or city that is
3 required or chooses to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 must submit any
4 housing development regulations to the department for a determination
5 of compliance with the laws and regulations identified in subsection
6 (5) of this section. For the purposes of this section, "housing
7 development regulations" means any development regulations related to 8 the housing element requirements under RCW 36.70A.070(2) including,
9 but not limited to, development regulations related to affordable
10 housing, middle housing, co-living housing, and accessory dwelling
11 units, and any zoning maps and zoning districts. A county or city must 12 submit any housing development regulations adopted or amended after 13 the effective date of this section to the department:

14 (i) Within six months after each comprehensive plan update is due
15 under RCW 36.70A.130;

16 (ii) After any final action to amend, repeal, or replace the 17 housing development regulations; and

18 (iii) After each periodic update required by RCW 36.70A.130"

19
20 On page 2, line 30, after "(d)" insert "The department may review
21 regulations previously adopted by the county or city if amendments may 22 be necessary to implement requirements with an effective date after 23 the regulation's adoption, or to implement a housing element during 24 the periodic review required by RCW 36.70A.130.

EFFECT: Makes the following changes:

- Modifies the list of development regulations related to housing element requirements in the Growth Management Act, by removing permanent supportive housing, emergency housing, and emergency shelters, and adding affordable housing and co-living housing.
- Allows the Department of Commerce (Commerce) to review existing housing development regulations to implement current laws and regulations during the 120-day notice of intent to apply review period.
- Specifies that a county or city required to or choosing to plan under the Growth Management Act must update its housing development regulations or housing element following comprehensive plan periodic updates or any action to amend, repeal, or replace the regulations or element.
- Allows Commerce to evaluate a county's or city's housing development regulations or housing element for compliance with affordable housing developments.
- Modifies the time period for enforceable restrictions providing affordable or moderate-income housing development units from a minimum period of 50-years to 25-years.
- Removes the limitation on a county's or city's ability to deny an affordable or moderate-income housing development when an impact fee exemption and ordinance were adopted prior to submission of a complete application for land use or building permits.
- Adds a severability clause.
