(3) A final appeal to the president of the college may be made from a decision of the discipline committee. (2) When notified of an appeal, the committee shall meet to select a chairperson and establish a hearing date for the appeal not later than fourteen days from the date the appeal was filed with the office of the president.

(3) The student has a right to a fair and impartial hearing.

(a) If any member of the committee is unable to render a fair and impartial decision for any reason, including conflict of interest or conscience, that member shall abstain from considering the issues.

(b) The student will be notified in writing, by personal service or by certified mail, of the time and place of the hearing. Such notice, to be provided not less than ten calendar days in advance of the hearing, shall include:

(i) A statement of the time, place and nature of the hearing;

(ii) A statement of the specific charges which will be considered;

(iii) To the extent known, a list of the witnesses who will appear, and a summary of the documentary or physical evidence which will be presented by the college.

(c) The student may request that a hearing date be advanced or that the hearing be continued for good cause. The discipline committee chair shall be authorized to alter the hearing date.

(d) The student shall be entitled to hear and examine the evidence against him or her and be informed of the identity of the source.

(e) The student shall be entitled to representation by the counsel of his or her choice at the hearing. If the student elects to choose as counsel an attorney licensed to practice in the state of Washington, the student shall notify the office of the college president of that choice at least five working days prior to the hearing.

(f) The student shall be allowed to present evidence on his or her own behalf and cross-examine witnesses testifying on behalf of the college as to the accuracy of their testimony.

(g) The hearing shall be closed unless the student specifically requests an open hearing. In a closed hearing, participants, excluding those admitted for the purpose of presenting evidence, shall be limited to: Members of the discipline committee and a single person chosen to record the proceedings; the student and counsel, not to exceed three persons in total; and the college authorities presenting the case and counsel, not to exceed three persons in total. If at any time during a closed or open hearing, there should be a disruption of the proceeding, the chairperson of the discipline committee may exclude from the hearing the person or persons causing the disruption.

(4) In all disciplinary proceedings, a college official shall be appointed to present the case of the college against the student accused of violating the rules of conduct. In cases in which the student elects to be represented by a licensed attorney, the college may elect to be represented by an assistant attorney general.

(5) An audio recording shall be made of any disciplinary hearing. In addition, the chair of the discipline committee may select either a member of the committee or an additional person to take notes during the hearing and prepare a record of the hearing. The record of the hearing shall consist of all documents presented, all evidence received and considered, all testimony offered, a statement of matters officially noted, questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings made thereon and during the course of the hearing.

(6) All records of college disciplinary proceedings shall be maintained in the office of the college president during the disciplinary proceedings, and shall be available during that time only to the discipline committee, the student and his or her attorney, and other college officials designated by the president. After the conclusion of the proceeding, access to records of the proceeding will be limited to those records designated by the president.

(7) Only the evidence presented at a disciplinary hearing will be considered in determining whether the accused student has violated the rules as charged. The chair, with the consent of the committee, shall exclude evidence which is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitive. Evidence or testimony to be offered on behalf of the student as extenuation or mitigation shall be presented only after substantive and factual evidence has been presented.

(8) At the conclusion of the hearing, the discipline committee shall meet in closed session to consider all information presented and shall decide by majority vote whether to uphold the decision of the college discipline official or to recommend any of the following actions:

(a) That the college terminate proceedings and exonerate the student;

(b) That the college impose any of the disciplinary sanctions defined in WAC 132A-120-026.

(9) Within seven calendar days of the hearing's conclusion, the discipline committee shall provide its recommendations to the college president. A copy of the committee's findings of fact and its recommendations will be made available to the student. The student will be advised of his or her right to present within ten days a written statement to the president of the college appealing the recommendations of the committee.

(10) Any student may appeal the findings of the discipline committee by providing a written appeal to the president of the college. The president shall then review the written record of evidence provided at the discipline committee's hearing, as well as the recommendations offered. During the review the president may, but is not required to, suspend any recommended disciplinary action. At the conclusion of the president's review, a statement of findings will be issued. The student will either be exonerated or sanctions will be imposed. The president's review shall be final.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-120-041, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-120-045 Repealed. See Disposition Table at beginning of this chapter.

WAC 132A-120-046 Summary suspension and appeals. (1) Except in extraordinary cases disciplinary sanctions will be imposed only after the college discipline officer has conducted an interview with the student and the student has exercised or declined to exercise the right of appeal. Extraordinary circumstances will be considered to exist when the college discipline officer has cause to believe that the student has committed a felony or has violated one of the regulations defined in this policy and presents an imminent danger to himself or herself, other persons on the college campus, or the educational process.

(2) In such cases, the college discipline officer shall attempt to notify the student personally and shall send notice by certified mail at the student's last known address that the student is summarily suspended. The notice shall state the charges against the student, refer to the regulations alleged to have been violated, and summon the student to a meeting with the discipline officer at a time as early as possible following the suspension.

(3) If after meeting with the student, the college discipline officer determines that:

(a) There is probable cause to believe the student did commit one or more of the violations alleged;

(b) The alleged violations would be sufficient grounds for disciplinary action; and

(c) That summary suspension is necessary for the safety of the student, other students or persons on college facilities, or the educational processes of the institution, the college discipline officer shall continue the summary suspension. In this event the student will be notified within three days by personal service or by certified mail sent to the student's last known address. Notification shall include:

(i) The findings of fact and the conclusion which led to the continued summary suspension.

(ii) The duration of the suspension or the nature of additional disciplinary action.

(iii) The conditions under which the suspension can be terminated.

(4) Failure of the student to attend or participate in a meeting with the discipline officer shall not limit the college's ability to extend or enforce a summary suspension.

(5) The student retains the right to appeal from the discipline officer's decision to continue a summary suspension. Appeal may be made to the college discipline committee, provided that:

(a) The student has met with the discipline officer;

(b) The student has been officially notified of the outcome of that meeting;

(c) Summary suspension or another disciplinary sanction has been upheld; and

(d) The appeal is made in accordance with administrative procedure 501.03.

(6) The college discipline committee, in accordance with procedure 501.04, will conduct a hearing within five days to consider an appeal from summary suspension. The discipline committee shall render its recommendation(s) to the college president within three days of its hearing.

(7) The president shall consider the recommendations of the discipline committee and shall issue a final decision within three days.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-120-046, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-120-051 Student grievances. If a student believes he or she has been unfairly treated by a college administrator, faculty member, or staff member, the student may pursue resolution of the grievance either informally or formally. To be considered valid, a grievance must be initiated within three weeks of the event giving rise to the grievance.

ance. The procedures outlined below are to be used, except that:

(1) Grievances may not be filed based on the outcome of summary or other disciplinary proceedings already described in earlier sections of this policy; and

(2) A grievance may not be filed in protest against federal or state laws, or against policies, regulations, or procedures adopted by the state community and technical college board or by the trustees of Peninsula College.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-120-051, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-120-055 Repealed. See Disposition Table at beginning of this chapter.

WAC 132A-120-056 Informal grievance procedures.

(1) A student wishing to pursue informal resolution of a grievance may contact the officer designated by the college president as ombudsman. The ombudsman may advise the grievant of possible courses of action, or may attempt to mediate or gain the satisfaction of all parties to the grievance.

(2) A student may instead choose an alternative informal grievance procedure, in which case the student shall: Contact the college employee with whom he or she has a grievance and attempt to resolve the matter through direct discussion. If such discussion does not resolve the issue, the student shall: Contact the employee's immediate supervisor, who shall serve as mediator and attempt to resolve the issue promptly and fairly. If a resolution is not reached in this manner, it shall be the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to forward the complaint to the college administrator who provides general supervision of the employee. This administrator will investigate the complaint, and will, within one week, determine how best to resolve the grievance and will provide a written opinion to all parties.

(3) Informal grievance procedures must be completed within three weeks, unless all parties agree to an extended process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-120-056, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-120-060 Repealed. See Disposition Table at beginning of this chapter.

WAC 132A-120-061 Formal grievance procedures.

(1) If a grievance cannot be resolved through informal processes, the student may petition for formal grievance procedures by presenting to the college ombudsman within five days of the conclusion of informal procedures a written request for a formal hearing of the grievance. At the time of the presentation of the petition, the student and the ombudsman will establish whether the student wishes to be assisted by counsel, provided that if the student will be represented by an attorney, the college may be represented by an assistant attorney general.

(2) Members of the college discipline committee will hear the grievance. Three additional members chosen by classified employees will be added to the discipline committee, which will then elect its own chairperson. Each member of the grievance committee shall be provided with a copy of the written request for hearing.

(a) The committee shall meet within seven days of receiving the statement and shall be free to call witnesses and receive testimony that allows them to reach a fair and prompt resolution of the grievance.

(b) The committee meeting shall be closed unless all parties to the grievance agree that it shall be public.

(c) Records of the hearing will be maintained, although it is intended that the hearing will be informal and informational.

(d) The grievant may withdraw the grievance at any point in the process by requesting termination in writing. Failure of the grievant or appellant to appear at any hearing without prior arrangement will be considered a withdrawal of the grievance or appeal.

(e) Within three days of the conclusion of the hearing, the committee shall issue a written recommendation, which shall be provided to all parties to the grievance. Additionally, the recommendation will be provided to the dean responsible for ultimate supervision of the employee involved. Within three working days the dean shall accept, modify, or reject the recommendations of the hearing committee and shall notify parties of the decision.

(3) If the student remains unsatisfied with the decision, he or she may request a review of the decision by the president of the college. Such a request shall be in writing and made within five working days of the recommendation. The president will review the record of the hearing committee, the decision of the dean, and the appeal of the grievant, and will render a final decision on behalf of the college.

(c) Records concerning a student created or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in his or her professional or paraprofessional capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are created, maintained, or used only in connection with the provision of treatment to the student and are not available to anyone other than persons providing such treatment. However, such records may be personally reviewed by a physician or other appropriate professional of the student's choice.

WAC 132A-350-015 Peninsula College antidiscrimination policy. (1) Preamble. Peninsula College is committed to protecting the rights and dignity of each individual in the campus community and will not tolerate any form of discrimination. All Peninsula College employees and students may report alleged discriminatory behavior without fear of restraint, reprisal, interference, or coercion. No employee's or student's status with the college shall be adversely affected in any way because he or she utilizes the following procedures. Peninsula College's informal and formal grievance procedures are designed to ensure fairness and consistency in the college's relations with its employees and students. Nothing in these procedures shall be construed as abridging the right of an employee or student to allege discrimination in exercising constitutional or statutory rights which may be available.

(2) Informal review procedures. Any employee or student is urged to communicate his or her discrimination grievance to the appropriate supervisor. Every effort should be made to resolve the grievance informally within the department. However, should an employee or student feel that he or she is unable to discuss the grievance with the appropriate supervisor, then that employee or student should go to the major administrator for that unit, department, or division to discuss the problem. The employee or student may also wish to exercise his or her rights to pursue an informal resolution, which may include mediation with the assistance of the affirmative action officer.

(3) Formal review procedures. The following formal review procedures have been established for those kinds of discrimination problems which remain unsolved after informal review has occurred and when the informal procedure has failed to resolve the conflict to the satisfaction of the parties.

(a) Any employee or student who believes he or she has been discriminated against in connection with a violation of the college's affirmative action policy may, after the informal procedures have failed, file a formal complaint in writing with the college's affirmative action officer, stating the grievance and requesting a remedy. Within five working days of the filing, the affirmative action officer shall serve a copy of the complaint to the respondent and notify the respondent's major administrator. The respondent has five working days in which to respond to the allegations in the complaint in writing and submit the reply to the affirmative action officer. Within five working days of the receipt of the reply, the affirmative action officer shall show the reply to the complainant, and ask both the complainant and respondent if they will mediate the complaint. If so, the affirmative action officer will initiate the mediation within ten working days of receiving the reply, unless availability of the parties involved necessitates an extension.

(b) If the complaint is unresolved after mediation, or if either party refuses to mediate, the affirmative action officer, or a qualified designee shall then investigate the complaint. Depending upon the circumstances, this investigation may include meetings with the employee, the immediate supervisor, the major administrator, and any other person who may be involved. A finding of probable cause or no probable cause shall be given to the employee or student by the affirmative action officer within sixty working days of the filing of the complaint. This time may be extended by mutual agreement between the complainant and the committee.

(c) If the complainant or respondent is not satisfied with the results of the review as indicated above, that person may appeal to the college president. All information regarding the complaint shall be forwarded to the president by the affirmative action officer, and the complainant or respondent may submit any further information desired. The president shall, within ten working days, communicate in writing to the complainant or respondent a decision, with a copy to the affirmative action officer. Again, the time may be extended by mutual agreement. The decision of the president shall be the college's final decision.

WAC 132A-350-020 Grievance procedure—Sexual harassment, sex discrimination. (1) Preamble. It is the policy of Peninsula College to provide an environment in which employees can work free from sexual harassment and sexual intimidation. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination. As such it is a violation of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments.

(2) Definitions. Sexual harassment of an employee is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct when:

(a) Submission to the conduct is either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's education, employment or career advancement; and/or

(b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for education or employment decisions or any other decisions affecting that individual; and/or

(c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's education or work or has the effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

(3) Procedure. A person who believes he or she has experienced gender discrimination or sexual harassment in the college environment may discuss the issue with a gender equity advisor who will help the claimant determine whether to proceed with mediation, formal hearing, or appeal. The advising process shall be designed to promote free discussion between the claimant and the advisor. Every attempt shall be made to protect the privacy of the individuals during the advising process.

(a) Mediation. After the advising process the claimant may request mediation among parties involved in his or her grievance. Both parties have the option to bring a support person to the mediation. A mutually agreed upon mediator will be selected from a list of mediators appointed by the president.

(b) Formal hearing. Any party may request a formal hearing by submitting a claim on Peninsula College's Complaint/Grievance Form to the affirmative action officer, who shall forward the claim to the sexual harassment investigative team appointed by the president and composed of classified student, faculty, and administrative representatives. At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigative team shall issue a written report which will include recommendations to the claimant, the respondent, and the college president. All parties are entitled to legal representation.

(c) Appeal. The claimant and respondent are entitled to file an appeal in writing to the college president within ten working days following receipt of the formal hearing report. Within ten working days after receipt of the written appeal, the college president shall conduct an appeal hearing and report the findings in writing to both the claimant and respondent. The decision of the college president shall be the college's final decision.

WAC 132A-350-030 Disciplinary action. The president may take disciplinary action should the investigative team find discrimination in the form of gender inequity or sexual harassment. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to, findings placed in a personnel or student file, suspension, or dismissal.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-350-030, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-350-040 Reasonable accommodations/academic adjustment for persons with disabilities. Persons with disabilities have the right to request reasonable accommodations/academic adjustments that:

(1) Are necessary to ensure that employment/academic requirements do not discriminate based on disability or have the effect of discriminating based on disability against a qualified individual; and

(2) Do not impose an undue hardship on the college or require alteration of essential program requirements.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-350-040, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-350-045 Definitions. (1) Academic adjustment means modifications to academic requirements as necessary to ensure that such requirements do not discriminate against students with disabilities or have the effect of excluding a student solely on the basis of a disability.

(2) Individual with a disability is a student, employee, applicant, or visitor who has a physical, mental or sensory impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such an impairment, is perceived to have such an impairment, or has an abnormal condition that is capable of being medically diagnosed.

(3) Reasonable accommodations means modifications or adjustments to academic procedures and job or work environment, policies, or practices that enable qualified individuals with disabilities to enjoy equal opportunities.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140 and chapter 28B.50 RCW. 99-15-072, § 132A-350-045, filed 7/20/99, effective 8/20/99.]

WAC 132A-350-050 Reasonable accommodations/academic adjustment disputes. The college shall not be mandated to furnish the requested accommodation, but will confer with the requester in an effort to achieve reasonable appropriate accommodations. If an individual believes the special needs coordinator or the counselor for students with disabilities has not identified or provided reasonable accommodations/academic adjustment or auxiliary aids, the individual may seek review of the action by contacting the vice president of educational services for academic adjustments or the vice president of administrative services for reasonable accommodations. The individual shall submit the appeal in writing to the appropriate vice-president. The vice-president shall review the individual's position and respond within five working days. If resolution is not reached, the vice-president will refer the appeal to the college president. The president shall review the dispute and make recommendations in writing for appropriate resolution. The decision of the president shall be the final decision.
