These wages must be earned in:

- Wages earned within a particular occupation or skill set.
- Wages earned in a particular service.

For claims with an effective date prior to April 5, 2009, "plurality of wages" means the largest proportion of wages earned within a particular occupation or skill set. These wages must be earned in:

- Your base year, and
- At least two of the four twelve-month periods preceding your base year.

"Skill set" means the work-related knowledge and abilities needed to produce a particular product or provide a particular service.

For purposes of RCW 50.22.155 (2)(b)(i) relating to low income workers, the term "total wages" means wages in employment covered under Title 50 RCW or comparable federal or state laws.

When deciding whether your separation from employment makes you eligible for training benefits, the department will look at the last job you held for a period of at least seven weeks in employment covered by Title 50 RCW or the comparable laws of another state.

When considering whether you are likely to return to employment, the department will look at whether you had good cause for leaving, or if you are disqualified from benefits for work-related misconduct under RCW 50.20.060 or 50.20.066, and have not requalified for benefits.

Training benefits are not available if you left work voluntarily as provided in RCW 50.20.050, regardless of whether you had good cause for leaving, or if you are disqualified from benefits for work-related misconduct under RCW 50.20.060 or 50.20.066, and have not requalified for benefits.

Dislocated workers—Unlikely to return to employment—RCW 50.22.155. Except as provided in RCW 50.22.155(6), the term "unlikely to return to employment" means, but is not limited to, situations where:

1. "Labor market" means the geographic area in which workers in your particular occupation or with your particular set of skills have customarily found work. For the purpose of determining whether you are a dislocated worker, "labor market" is based on your place of residence at the time you separated from employment. You will not be considered a dislocated worker if, following your separation from work, you move from a labor market area where your skills are in demand to an area where they are declining.

2. Suitable work for individuals with your skills is in your particular occupation or with your particular set of skills.

3. "Skill set" means the work-related knowledge and abilities needed to produce a particular product or provide a particular service.

Chapter 192-270 WAC
TRAINING BENEFITS FOR DISLOCATED WORKERS

WAC 192-270-005 Definitions. The definitions below apply to this chapter, RCW 50.22.150, and 50.22.155:

1. "Labor market" means the geographic area in which workers in your particular occupation or with your particular set of skills have customarily found work. For the purpose of determining whether you are a dislocated worker, "labor market" is based on your place of residence at the time you separated from employment. You will not be considered a dislocated worker if, following your separation from work, you move from a labor market area where your skills are in demand to an area where they are declining.

2. For claims with an effective date prior to April 5, 2009, "plurality of wages" means the largest proportion of wages earned within a particular occupation or skill set. These wages must be earned in:

   (a) Your base year, and
   (b) At least two of the four twelve-month periods preceding your base year.

3. "Skill set" means the work-related knowledge and abilities needed to produce a particular product or provide a particular service.

(6/8/10)
For new claims, the deadline will be 95 calendar days from the date your application for benefits is filed, which represents 90 days plus five days for the booklet to reach you by mail.

(b) For claims with an effective date on or after April 5, 2009, you must be enrolled in training within 120 calendar days, beginning on the date you are notified about the eligibility requirements for training benefits. For new claims, the deadline will be 125 calendar days from the date your application for benefits is filed, which represents 120 days plus five days for the booklet to reach you by mail.

(3) For claims with an effective date on or after April 5, 2009, these timeframes may be waived for good cause. For purposes of this section, "good cause" includes but is not limited to situations where:

(a) You were employer attached, including being on standby or partially unemployed, when you filed your claim for unemployment benefits but your attachment to your employer subsequently ended;
(b) You acted or failed to act on authoritative advice directly from department or partner staff upon which a reasonable person would normally rely;
(c) You were incapacitated due to illness or injury or other factors of similar gravity; or
(d) Other factors which would effectively prevent a reasonably prudent person, as defined in WAC 192-100-010, facing similar circumstances, from meeting the timelines established under this section.

(4) If you return to work, and subsequently become unemployed, the time frames described in subsections (1) and (2) begin with the date you file your additional claim for benefits.

WAC 192-270-045 Requirements for applying for training benefits. The following information must be included in your application for training benefits:

(1) Your name and Social Security account number;
(2) The name of the educational institution;
(3) The address of the educational institution;
(4) The department of the educational institution, if applicable;
(5) The name of the training program;
(6) A description of the training program, including remedial requirements if necessary;

(7) Your enrollment date or your place on the waiting list and expected enrollment date;
(8) The duration of the training program, including the dates you plan to begin and complete training;
(9) The occupation(s) trained for;
(10) A verification of your enrollment provided by the educational institution;
(11) A release of information form authorizing the educational institution to release grades, attendance, and other measures of program progress to the department; and
(12) Your signature.

WAC 192-270-047 Incomplete applications. An application that is incomplete will be returned to you for completion. The filing of an incomplete application does not extend the time frames under WAC 192-270-035 for filing a completed application for training benefits.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 50.12.010, 50.12.040, and 50.20.010. 01-11-085, § 192-270-047, filed 6/8/10, effective 7/9/10.]

WAC 192-270-050 Criteria for approving training plans. (1) The department will consider the following factors when reviewing your application for training benefits:
(a) Whether you have a current benefit year as required by RCW 50.22.010(9);
(b) Your plan for completion of the training including, but not limited to, the financial resources you intend to use to complete your training when training benefits run out;
(c) Whether you have the qualifications and aptitudes to successfully complete the training;
(d) For each of the following categories of workers:
(i) Dislocated workers under RCW 50.22.155 (2)(a): Whether suitable employment is available in the labor market in which you currently reside and whether the training is likely to enhance your marketable skills and earning power, based on an assessment of what your earning power would be if training were not provided. If you were originally determined to be a dislocated worker, but moved from the area where your skills were declining to an area where your skills are in demand, you are not eligible for training benefits.
(ii) Low income workers under RCW 50.22.155 (2)(b)(i): Whether vocational training is likely to enhance your earning potential. This consists of training for a career in a demand occupation that will help you obtain and maintain stable, quality employment.
(iii) For military veterans, current members of the Washington National Guard, and disabled individuals under RCW 50.22.155 (2)(b)(ii), (iii) and (iv): Whether training is needed to assist you in finding suitable work in your labor market.
(e) Whether the training relates to a high demand occupation.
(i) For claims with an effective date prior to April 5, 2009, "high demand" means that the number of job openings in the labor market for the occupation or with that skill set exceeds the supply of qualified workers.
(ii) For claims with an effective date on or after April 5, 2009, "high demand" means an occupation with a substantial number of current or projected employment opportunities;
(f) Whether the training is likely to enhance your marketable skills and earning power, based on an assessment of what your employment prospects would be if training were not approved; and
(g) Whether the educational institution and training program meet the performance criteria established by the workforce training and education coordinating board.
(2) Academic training may be approved if it meets the criteria of subsection (1) and it meets specific requirements for certification, licensing, or specific skills necessary for the occupation.
(3) The department may approve educational training that has been identified as necessary by the training facility as a prerequisite to a vocational training program that meets the criteria of subsection (1).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 50.12.010, 50.12.040, and 50.22.150(10). 01-11-085, § 192-270-050, filed 5/16/01, effective 6/16/01.]

WAC 192-270-055 Funding—Waiting lists. Payment of training benefits is contingent upon the availability of funding. Training will not be approved under RCW 50.22.150 unless the department has determined that funds are available to support your training plan.
(1) The amount of funds obligated will be the amount necessary to complete your training plan or the maximum amount authorized by RCW 50.22.150 (5)(a), whichever is less.
(2) If you have been denied training benefits due to lack of funds, the department will consider whether you are eligible for commissioner approved training under WAC 192-200-020.
(3) Funds will be obligated in the following order:
(a) First, otherwise eligible dislocated workers who are enrolled in training approved by the department as of February 13, 2000;
(b) Second, other eligible dislocated workers on a first-come, first-served basis, determined by the date the completed training application is received by the department.
(4) Once all available funds have been obligated, individuals who have been denied training benefits due solely to the lack of funds will be placed on a waiting list. Priority on the waiting list will be determined by the department. As additional funds become available, this date will be used when obligating funds to claimants on the waiting list. In the event two or more claimants on the waiting list have the same date, priority will be given to that person who is closest to exhausting regular unemployment benefits.
(5) An individual's name may be removed from the waiting list, upon written notice, when the department determines it is appropriate. Examples include, but are not limited to:
(a) Written correspondence to the claimant from the department is returned by the U.S. postal service for lack of a current address, and the claimant has not filed a change of address with the department;
(b) The claimant fails to respond to written correspondence from the department by the date indicated in the correspondence;
(c) The claimant is not enrolled in or making satisfactory progress in full-time training; or
(d) Implementation of the approved training program would result in benefits being paid more than two years beyond the end of the claimant's benefit year.

Statutory Authority: RCW 50.12.010, 50.20.010, and 50.22.150(10). 01-11-085, § 192-270-055, filed 5/16/01, effective 6/16/01.

WAC 192-270-060 Occupation in high demand outside labor market. A training plan may be approved in an occupation not in demand in your local labor market if:
(1) The occupation is in high demand in another labor market; and
(2) You are willing and able to relocate to that labor market when the training is completed; and
(3) There is not a current demand for workers with your present skills in that labor market. The demand for workers in that labor market must be at wages comparable to those paid in your current labor market, based on any differences in the cost of living between the two areas.

Statutory Authority: RCW 50.12.010, 50.20.010, and 50.22.150(10). 01-11-085, § 192-270-060, filed 5/16/01, effective 6/16/01.

WAC 192-270-065 Certification of satisfactory progress. (1) In order to continue your eligibility for training benefits, the certification that you are making satisfactory progress in full-time training must be signed by the registrar or an equivalent person designated by your educational institution.
(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), for training benefits purposes the term "satisfactory progress" means:
(a) Your grade point average does not fall below 2.0 for more than one quarter;
(b) You maintain a grade point average sufficient to graduate from, or receive certification in, your approved area of study; and
(c) You are completing sufficient credit hours to finish your approved course of study within the time frame established under your approved training plan.
(3) In the case of self-paced or ungraded learning programs, "satisfactory progress" means participating in classes and passing certification examinations within the time frame established under your approved training plan.

Statutory Authority: RCW 50.12.010, 50.20.010, and 50.22.150(10). 01-11-085, § 192-270-065, filed 5/16/01, effective 6/16/01.

WAC 192-270-070 Modifying a training plan. (1) You must notify the department prior to making a significant modification to your approved training plan. A significant modification is one that impacts any of the approval criteria listed in WAC 192-270-050 and includes, but is not limited to, changes in:
(a) Your course of study or major;
(b) The educational institution;
(c) The projected start or end dates for the training; or
(d) Your enrolled credit hours.
(2) The department must determine your continued eligibility for training benefits any time you make a significant modification to your training plan, using the criteria listed in WAC 192-270-050 (1)(b)-(g). Approval of a modification that increases the projected cost of the training is subject to the availability of funding. The department will conditionally pay benefits on a modified training plan until the modification is approved or denied.
(3) In general, you may make a significant modification to your plan one time. Subsequent modifications will not be approved except in unusual individual circumstances. However, this restriction does not apply while you are enrolled in educational courses that are a prerequisite to vocational training.
(4) If you modified your training plan without approval by the department, and that modification is subsequently disapproved, you are ineligible for training benefits for at least five years.
(5) Any benefits paid for a modified training plan that is not approved by the department constitute an overpayment and shall be subject to recovery under RCW 50.20.190.

Statutory Authority: RCW 50.12.010, 50.20.010, and 50.22.150(10). 01-11-085, § 192-270-070, filed 5/16/01, effective 6/16/01.
