[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-010, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

BACKGROUND

WAC 174-123-020 Purpose. The Evergreen State College can thrive only when all members of the community participate in the social contract, which prizes academic and interpersonal honesty, conveys our commitment to resolving differences with a strong will toward collaboration, and protects community values and individual rights. The student conduct code articulates specific procedures and standards for upholding the values and aspirations expressed in the social contract. Specifically, the code strives to afford opportunities for informal resolution and to support students to be accountable for their decisions and actions. The code has been crafted in the spirit of education and compassion, with the aim of healing individuals, preserving our common interests, and protecting each other from harm.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-020, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

(8) Viewing, photographing, or filming another person without that person's knowledge and consent, while the person being photographed, viewed or filmed is in a place where he or she would have a reasonable expectation of privacy.

Sexual intercourse means any anal, oral or vaginal intercourse, however slight, with any object. Consent means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse or sexual contact there are actual words or conduct indicating a voluntary and mutually understandable agreement between the parties to engage in the action(s) or behavior(s). Consent may not be given or granted when one's capacity for effective decision making has been diminished by the use of alcohol or drugs, or a person is unconscious, or is experiencing some other cognitive impairment. Consent is not considered voluntary when obtained through threats, intimidation, or coercion. Sexual misconduct can occur with any combination of genders, gender expressions and sexual orientations.

(b) The photographing or filming of the intimate areas of another person without that person's knowledge and consent and under circumstances where the person has a reasonable expectation of privacy, whether in a public or private place.

(c) The indecent exposure of a person's genitals when done in a place where such exposure is likely to be an offense against generally accepted standards of decency.

(d) Sexual exploitation which occurs when one takes nonconsensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for another's advantage or benefit and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct prohibitions. Sexual exploitation includes, but is not limited to, going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as allowing others to view otherwise consensual sexual activity).

(18) Harm, which is behavior directed at an individual that is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent such that it diminishes or interferes with the ability of an individual to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or privileges provided by the college or an employee to engage in their work duties.

(24) Tampering with the election of any student organization or group.

(25) Hazing which is conduct that includes any activity or method of initiation into a recognized organization or student social, living, learning, or athletic group that causes, or is likely to cause, bodily danger or physical, mental, or emotional harm to any member of the college community.

(26) Being charged with violation of federal, state, or local law by law enforcement, or conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, under circumstances where it is reasonable to conclude that the presence of the person on college premises would constitute a danger to the health, or personal safety of members of the college community.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-070, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-080 Emergency suspension. (1) The vice-president for student affairs, or designee, may immediately suspend a student from the college for an interim period prior to the completion of an investigation of an alleged code violation by the student conduct administrator, if the student's alleged act of misconduct is of such a serious nature that continued enrollment at the college presents a threat to the safety, health, or welfare of any member of the college community, or the protection of personal or college property.

(2) A student placed on emergency suspension will be served notice of the suspension, the reason for imposing an emergency suspension, and advised of the date, time and place for a hearing regarding the suspension before the vice-president of student affairs, or their designee. The hearing will take place no later than ten business days from the effective date of the emergency suspension.

(3) The respondent may request to proceed with a conduct conference with the senior conduct administrator prior to the emergency suspension hearing. The resolution of the conduct conference may result in removal of the emergency suspension with the vice-president's approval.

(4) Failure of a student to appear at the time and place scheduled in the served notice will result in the issuance of an order of default and in the loss of the student's right to a hearing challenging the emergency suspension.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-080, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

STUDENT CONDUCT CODE PROCEDURES

WAC 174-123-090 Purpose. The procedures governing a student conduct administrator's handling of complaints under the code are designed to afford complainants and respondents informal resolution options and a fair and accessible process. The process educates students about their rights and responsibilities, holds students accountable for their actions, and provides due process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-090, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-100 Submitting a complaint. (1) Any person may submit a complaint against a student alleging a violation of the code. The complaint must be submitted in writing to the senior student conduct administrator or to any other college official. A complaint should be submitted as soon as possible after the event has taken place.

(2) The senior conduct administrator, or designee, will be responsible for addressing alleged violations of the code. If there is a question about who should be responsible for addressing a complaint, the vice-president for student affairs, or designee, will assign responsibility for handling the complaint and if necessary, serve as a student conduct administrator.

(3) A complainant or respondent may request, in writing to the vice-president for student affairs, to have a complaint addressed by an alternate student conduct administrator if a bias, prejudice, or conflict of interest is identified. The vice-president of student affairs will have the final authority to determine the appropriate student conduct administrator to assign in this case.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-100, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-110 Notification to respondent. (1) The respondent will meet with the student conduct code administrator for a conduct conference as directed in a written notice.

(2) The student conduct administrator may impose interim restrictions on the respondent prior to, or at any stage during, a conduct conference, when the health or safety of the complainant or any member of the college community is deemed at risk. The interim restriction may include a no contact order and/or loss of privileges limiting access to community members who may be at risk due to the respondent's presence.

A student issued an interim restriction that includes loss of privileges will receive written notice of the interim restriction, the reason for imposing an interim restriction, and advised of the date, time and place for a hearing regarding the interim restriction before the student conduct administrator, or their designee. The hearing will take place no later than three business days from the effective date of the interim restriction.

(3) The interim restriction will remain in place until a contract of accountability exists, an appeal board issues a final determination, or the student conduct administrator notifies the respondent in writing that the interim restriction has been modified or is no longer in effect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-110, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-120 Conduct conference. (1) During the conduct conference, which may occur over a series of meetings, the student conduct administrator will explain to the respondent the process for addressing complaints under the code, advise the respondent of their rights and responsibilities, and review with the respondent the complaint and alleged violation(s) of the code.

(2) If there is more than one respondent involved in the complaint, the student conduct administrator, at their discretion, may conduct the conferences concerning each respondent either separately, or jointly.

(3) Failure to meet with the student conduct administrator at the appointed time during the conduct conference process may subject a respondent to a conduct hold. If the respondent fails to meet with the student conduct administrator as required, a determination of responsibility and required resolution and sanctions may be determined in the respondent's absence.

(4) In addition to information sought from the respondent regarding the allegations, the student conduct administrator may seek additional information from other persons with information relevant to the investigation of the complaint.

(5) If the complaint is determined to have merit, the student conduct administrator will proceed with informal resolution, enter into a contract of accountability with the respondent, or complete an investigation and issue a determination of responsibility and required resolution and sanction(s). If the student conduct administrator determines that the respondent is not responsible for violating the code, no action will be taken and the complaint will be dismissed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-120, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-130 Informal resolution. If the student conduct administrator concludes that efforts at informal resolution are appropriate to resolve a complaint, the administrator will take whatever steps are useful to that end, including mediation, arbitration or a restorative justice conference. The complainant may end the informal resolution process at any time and request formal resolution of the complaint.

If an informal resolution is reached and the respondent complies with the agreed terms and conditions, if any, no further action against the respondent will be taken and the matter will be closed. If a resolution is not reached, or the respondent fails to comply with the agreed terms and conditions of the resolution, the student conduct code administrator may proceed to take action necessary to resolve the complaint.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-130, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-140 Contract of accountability. (1) The student conduct administrator may work with any respondent who acknowledges responsibility for engaging in prohibited conduct to identify the resolution and sanction(s).

If an agreement is reached, the resolution and sanction(s) will be contained in a written contract of accountability signed by both the respondent and the student conduct administrator.

(2) A respondent who enters into a contract of accountability will comply with the resolution and sanction(s) set forth in the contract and will have no further right of appeal under the code. A respondent's failure to comply with a contract of accountability may be the basis for a separate violation of misconduct under the code and may result in the student conduct administrator issuing a conduct hold. The conduct hold will remain in effect until such time that the student satisfactorily completes all of the requirements of the contract of accountability. If a complaint alleges sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or physical abuse, the complainant is to be informed of the contract of accountability.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-140, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-150 Notice of determination of responsibility and required resolution and sanctions. (1) If a complaint is not resolved through informal resolution or by entering into a contract of accountability, the student conduct administrator will issue a determination of responsibility based on a standard of more likely than not and if appropriate, a required resolution and sanction(s).

(2) The determination of responsibility will identify the specific conduct that has violated the code. The required resolution and sanction(s) will provide for those tasks or consequences, and associated deadlines, the respondent must execute to address violations of the code.

(3) The student conduct administrator's determination of responsibility and required resolution and sanction(s) will be final unless the respondent files a timely appeal to the student conduct appeals board. If a complaint alleges sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or physical abuse, the complainant is to be informed of the final determination and any sanction imposed against the respondent and may file a timely appeal to the student conduct appeals board.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-150, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-160 Resolution and sanctions. The following resolution and sanctions may be agreed to by, or required of, a respondent found to have violated the code. More than one resolution and sanction may be imposed for any single violation. Resolution and sanctions are based on the unique aspects of each situation and should be appropriate to the violation, taking into consideration the context and seriousness of the violation. History, patterns, and frequency of misconduct; severity and level of impact on the community; and a student's motivation and response all determine the resolution and sanction for each individual respondent.

(1) Warning. This is a written notice that the student is violating, or has violated, the code.

(2) Educational and discretionary actions. This includes, but is not limited to, work assignments, essays, behavior assessment and recommended treatment, completion of a workshop or training, restorative justice conference, or service to the college.

(3) Probation. A written reprimand and notice that for a designated period of time a student will be on special status with conditions imposed that include the probability of additional required resolution and sanctions if the student is found to violate the code during the probationary period of time.

(4) Loss of privileges. This may include, but is not limited to, limited access or restriction from college premises, college-sponsored activities or events, use of equipment, student employment, or participation in cocurricular activities.

(5) Restitution. Compensation for loss, damage, or expenses for injury incurred by the college or persons resulting from a violation of the code. This may take the form of appropriate service, monetary or material replacement, or a combination of both.

(6) No contact order. A directive that a student may have no contact with other stated members of the college community. In the case where a "no contact order" is issued, a student may be required to organize their activities in order to avoid contact with designated individuals.

(7) Residence hall suspension. Separation of the student from the residence halls for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions allowing for a student to return to the residence hall may be specified in the suspension.

(8) Residence hall expulsion. Permanent separation of the student from the residence halls.

WAC 174-123-190 Procedure at hearing. The procedures to be followed at hearings conducted by the student conduct appeals board are as follows:

(1) All procedural questions and other decisions are subject to the final decision of the chair of the board unless otherwise provided for in these rules. The chair will ensure that the proceeding is held in an orderly manner such that the rights of all parties to a full, fair and impartial proceeding that adheres to the code is achieved.

(2) The hearing is a closed proceeding which includes only members of the board; the advisor to the board, if any; the student conduct administrator and their advisor, if any; the complainant and the respondent and their advisor(s), if any; and persons requested to provide information at the hearing. Admission of any other person to the hearing is at the discretion of the board's chair and subject to the requirement set forth in subsection (8) of this section.

(3) The complainant and the respondent are neither encouraged nor required to be assisted by an advisor of their choosing at their own expense. The student conduct administrator and respondent are expected to present all information during the proceedings. Proceedings will not be automatically delayed due to the scheduling conflicts of an advisor. In cases where the complaint alleges sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or physical abuse, the complainant may present information during the proceedings.

(4) There will be a single verbatim sound recording of the hearing, and the record will be on file with the vice-president for student affairs and is the property of the college.

(5) The respondent's failure to cooperate with or attend a hearing will not preclude the board from proceeding and issuing a final determination or upholding the determination of the student conduct administrator.

(6) Only those materials and information presented at the hearing will be considered. The chair may exclude or limit ineffectual, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious information.

(7) Any person disrupting the proceeding will be duly warned and subsequently may be excluded from the hearing by the chair. Any student engaging in such interference will be in violation of the student conduct code.

(8) The chair is authorized to take reasonable measures to maintain control over the proceedings in order to elicit relevant information, to prevent the mistreatment of participants, to insure that proceedings are not disrupted and the interests of fairness are served. This may include regulating the timing, length and manner of presentations, declaring recesses in the proceedings, and taking other appropriate actions.

(9) Only members of the student conduct appeals board and the advisor to the board, if any, will be present for deliberations. Deliberations are not recorded. During deliberations the board will consider all the information presented and decide by majority vote whether it is more likely than not that the respondent is responsible for violating each section of the code the respondent is charged with violating and/or what resolution and sanction(s) to impose.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-190, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

WAC 174-123-200 Board composition. (1) The board will be composed of five members consisting of one faculty member, one staff member, and three students. One member will be designated by the vice-president to serve as the chair of the board for a hearing.

(2) The faculty agenda committee will designate faculty members to serve on the student conduct appeals board as needed.

(3) The vice-president for student affairs will be responsible for designating the student and staff members serving on the board. The student members, including the selection of alternate members to serve as necessary, will be done through an open selection process established by the vice-president.

(4) A respondent, complainant, and/or the student conduct administrator may request removal of a member of the board at the commencement of the hearing for reasons of bias, prejudice or conflict of interest. The chair of the board will be responsible for making decisions regarding removal, unless the student is requesting removal of the chair. When there is a request to remove the chair, and the chair does not voluntarily step down, a quorum of the remaining members will decide whether removal is warranted. If a member is removed, an appropriate alternate member (i.e., faculty, student or staff) will serve on the board for the excused member.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-200, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

(2) Determines that it is more likely than not that the student is not responsible for violating the code, reverse the determination of responsibility issued by the student conduct administrator, and dismiss the case.

The final determination will be provided to the respondent by served notice. If a complaint alleges sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, or physical abuse, the complainant will be informed of the final determination and any sanction imposed against the respondent by written notice.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-210, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

(3) The final determination issued by the student conduct appeals board will remain in effect during the time period that a petition for reconsideration is under review by the board. The board will respond within twenty business days from the date the petition is submitted.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.40.120. 12-03-040, § 174-123-220, filed 1/10/12, effective 2/10/12.]

MAINTENANCE OF STUDENT CONDUCT CODE RECORDS

WAC 174-123-230 Retention. (1) A student's conduct record may be retained for seven years after the final disposition of the case unless the college is required to retain the record for a longer period of time under another provision of state or federal law. When the resolution and sanction(s) includes college expulsion or revocation of a degree the record will be retained in perpetuity. Final disposition is defined as when:

(a) A respondent fulfills the contract of accountability or the required resolution and sanction(s) issued by the student conduct appeals board; or

[Ch. 174-123 WAC—p. 8]

(b) A case is closed at the discretion of the student conduct administrator when the respondent has not completed the required resolution and sanction and has not been enrolled for twelve months.

(2) Other than college expulsion, degree revocation, or withholding of a degree, resolution and sanctions will not be made part of the student's permanent academic record, but will be part of the student's conduct record.

SIMULTANEOUS CIVIL OR CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

WAC 174-123-240 Simultaneous civil or criminal proceedings. (1) Student conduct code proceedings may be instituted and carried out without regard to any criminal or civil litigation or external processes with which the student may be involved. Issuance of a determination of responsibility or required resolution and sanction(s) by the student conduct administrator or appeals board will not be subject to change because criminal charges or civil litigation from the same facts resulting in an allegation of violation of the code were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the respondent.

(2) If a respondent charged with misconduct under this code has been charged with a crime for the same act or closely related acts by federal, state, or local authorities, or if it appears that such criminal charge is under consideration, the respondent may petition the vice-president for student affairs to postpone action on the complaint until there has been a disposition of the criminal charge or of the consideration of filing such charge. The vice-president will have the discretion to grant or deny the request.

(3) When a respondent is charged by federal, state, or local authorities with a violation of law, the college will not request or agree to special consideration for the individual because of their status as a student. If the alleged criminal offense is also being addressed under the code, the college may advise off-campus authorities of the existence of the code and how such matters are typically handled within the college community.
