WAC 182-510-0005 What medical coverage does a supplemental security income client, essential person, and an ineligible spouse get? (1) If you are an SSI client you automatically get categorically needy (CN) medical coverage (WAC 388-505-0110) unless you:

(a) Refuse to provide private medical insurance information; or

(b) Refuse to assign the right to recover insurance funds to the department (WAC 388-505-0540).

(2) If you are an essential person as described in WAC 388-474-0001 you get CN medical coverage as long as you continue to live with the SSI client.

(3) If you are an ineligible spouse you are not considered an SSI recipient. You must have your medical assistance determined separately.

WAC 182-510-0010 What happens to my categorically needy (CN) medical coverage when my supplemental security income (SSI) cash payment is terminated? (1) Your CN medical coverage (WAC 388-505-0110) continues after an SSI cash payment ends when:

(a) Countable income exceeds the SSI income standard due solely to the annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA); or

(b) A timely request for a hearing has been filed. CN medical coverage is continued until Social Security Administration (SSA) makes a final decision on the hearing request and on any subsequent timely appeals.

(2) If your SSI ends your CN medical coverage continues for a period of up to one hundred twenty days while the department reviews your eligibility for other cash or medical programs.

(3) If you are a terminated SSI or SSI-related client, the department will review your disability status when:

(a) You present new medical evidence;

(b) Your medical condition changes significantly; or

(c) Your termination from SSI was not based on a review of current medical evidence.

(4) Children terminated from SSI due to loss of disabled status may be eligible for medical benefits under WAC 388-505-0210.
