WAC 357-46-005 What is the impact of a layoff?
Layoff is an employer-initiated action taken in accordance with WAC 357-46-010 that results in:

- (1) Separation from service with an employer;
- (2) Employment in a class with a lower salary range maximum;
- (3) Reduction in the work year; or
- (4) Reduction in the number of work hours.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 04-18-114, § 357-46-005, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-010 What are the reasons for layoff?
(1) Employees may be laid off without prejudice according to layoff procedures that are consistent with these rules. The reasons for layoff include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) Lack of funds;
- (b) Lack of work; or
- (c) Organizational change.
- (2) Examples of layoff actions due to lack of work may include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) Termination of a project or special employment;
 - (b) Availability of fewer positions than there are employees entitled to such positions;
 - (c) Employee's ineligibility to continue in a position following its reallocation to a class with a higher salary range maximum; or
 - (d) Employee's ineligibility to continue, or choice not to continue, in a position following its reallocation to a class with a lower salary range maximum.
 - (e) Elimination of a position due to the work of the position being competitively contracted.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 07-17-124, § 357-46-010, filed 8/20/07, effective 9/20/07; 05-19-004, § 357-46-010, filed 9/8/05, effective 10/10/05; 04-18-114, § 357-46-010, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-012 Following the award of a contract under the competitive contracting process (as described in Title 236 WAC), how does an employer lay off employees whose positions are being eliminated due to the awarded contract? (1) If an employee business unit as defined by WAC 357-43-001 is not awarded the contract, all employees whose positions are being eliminated are subject to the employer's layoff procedure when the positions are eliminated or reduced.

(2) Employees whose positions are being eliminated who are not part of the employee business unit awarded the contract are subject to the employer's layoff procedure when the employees' positions are eliminated or reduced. (See WAC 357-43-008 for what happens if an employee chooses to not be a part of the employee business unit.)

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 07-11-092, § 357-46-012, filed 5/16/07, effective 7/1/07; 05-19-004, § 357-46-012, filed 9/8/05, effective 10/10/05.]

WAC 357-46-015 How does an employer implement a layoff action? The employer must have a layoff procedure. When the employer determines a layoff is necessary, the procedure must be followed. The layoff procedure must be available either electronically or in writing to employees subject to layoff.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 04-18-114, § 357-46-015, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-020 What must be included in the employer's layoff procedure? The employer's layoff procedure must:

- (1) Identify clearly defined layoff unit(s) that minimize disruption of the employer's total operation and provide options to employees scheduled for layoff;
 - Employers may establish separate and exclusive layoff units for project employment, employee business units, or special employment programs.

(2) Provide opportunities to avoid or minimize layoff, such as transfers, voluntary demotion, voluntary reduced work schedule, or voluntary leave without pay;

(3) Require the appointing authority to provide written notice of layoff to employees in accordance with WAC 357-46-025;

(4) Provide layoff options for permanent employees being laid off as provided in WAC 357-46-035;

(5) Address the time frame in which employees must select a layoff option;

(6) Define what the employer considers when determining the comparability of a position;

(7) Identify the employer's legitimate business requirements if the employer is going to consider those requirements in determining layoff options under WAC 357-46-035;

- Legitimate business requirements may include requirements such as circumstances or characteristics that render a position uniquely sensitive to disruption in continuity such as meeting critical deadlines, continuity in patient care, or research progress.

(8) Describe how employment retention ratings will be calculated, including options for factoring performance into ratings; and

(9) Specify how the employer will break ties when more than one employee has the same employment retention rating.

(10) Higher education employers address in their layoff procedure whether or not employees have layoff list rights to classes they held permanent status in prior to any breaks in state service.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 10-11-068, § 357-46-020, filed 5/14/10, effective 6/15/10; 07-11-092, § 357-46-020, filed 5/16/07, effective 7/1/07; 04-18-114, § 357-46-020, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-025 How much layoff notice must employers give employees? (1) Probationary employees being separated due to layoff must receive at least one calendar day's notice. (See WAC 357-46-185)

(2) Permanent employees being laid off must receive at least fifteen calendar days' notice unless the employer and employee agree to waive the fifteen day notice period.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 04-18-114, § 357-46-025, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-030 What must be included in the layoff notice? The layoff notice for permanent employees must be in writing and minimally include all the following items:

- (1) The reason or basis for layoff.
- (2) The employee's layoff options as determined by WAC 357-46-035, including any requirement for the employee to serve a transition review period.
- (3) The specific layoff list(s) that the employee is entitled to request placement on according to WAC 357-46-070 and 357-46-080 and information on how to request placement on the statewide layoff list.
- (4) The date by when the employee must select a layoff option.
- (5) The employee's right to appeal the layoff.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 04-18-114, § 357-46-030, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-035 Layoff option. (1) What option does a permanent employee have to take a position when the employee is scheduled for layoff?

Within the layoff unit, a permanent employee scheduled for layoff must be offered the option to take a position, if available, that meets the following criteria:

(a) The position is allocated to the class in which the employee holds permanent status at the time of the layoff. If no option to a position in the current class is available, the employee's option is to a position in a class in which the employee has held permanent status that is at the same salary range. If the employee has no option to take a position at the same salary range, the employee must be given an opportunity to take a position in a lower class in a class series in which the employee has held permanent status, in descending salary order. The employee does not have to have held permanent status in the lower class in order to be offered the option to take a position in the class.

(b) The position is comparable to the employee's current position as defined by the employer's layoff procedure.

(c) The employee satisfies the competencies and other position requirements.

(d) The position is funded and vacant, or if no vacant funded position is available, the position is occupied by the employee with the lowest employment retention rating.

(2) What if the employee has no option under subsection (1) of this section?

(a) If a permanent employee has no option available under subsection (1) of this section, the employer must determine if there is an available position in the layoff unit to offer the employee in lieu of separation that meets the following criteria:

(i) The position is at the same or lower salary range maximum as the position from which the employee is being laid off;

(ii) The position is vacant or held by a probationary employee or an employee in a nonpermanent appointment;

(iii) The position is comparable or less than comparable; and

(iv) The position is one for which the employee meets the competencies and other position requirements.

(b) If more than one qualifying position is available, the position with the highest salary range maximum is the one that must be offered.

(3) What happens when a class in which the employee previously held permanent status has been revised or abolished?

If a class in which an employee has previously held permanent status has been revised or abolished, the employer shall determine the closest matching class to offer as a layoff option. The closest matching class must be at the same or lower salary range maximum as the class from which the employee is being laid off.

(4) Does an employee have layoff option rights as provided in subsection (1) of this section to classifications the employee held permanent status in prior to any breaks in state service?

General government employees have layoff option rights as provided in subsection (1) of this section to classifications the employee has held permanent status in regardless of any breaks in state service.

Higher education employers must address in their layoff procedure whether or not employees will be given layoff options to classes they held permanent status in prior to any breaks in state service.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 10-11-068, § 357-46-035, filed 5/14/10, effective 6/15/10; 09-17-064, § 357-46-035, filed 8/13/09, effective 9/16/09; 09-11-063, § 357-46-035, filed 5/14/09, effective 6/16/09; 04-18-114, § 357-46-035, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-040 What makes one position comparable to another when determining layoff options? Comparability of positions is defined by the employer's layoff procedure, and may include such factors as geographic location, number of hours per week, the shift time of the position, and any other factors as defined by the employer in its layoff procedure.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 04-18-114, § 357-46-040, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-045 How do employers establish competency and other position requirements? In establishing competency and other position requirements, employers may use any of the following documented criteria:

(1) Licensing/certification requirements;

(2) Position description;

(3) Class specification;

(4) Skills/competencies listed on the position's most recent recruitment announcement or the last announcement used to fill the position;

(5) Bona fide occupational requirement(s) approved by the Washington human rights commission; or

(6) Additional documented competencies or requirements not reflected in the position description.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 04-18-114, § 357-46-045, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-050 How does an employer determine an employee's employment retention rating? The employer determines an employee's employment retention rating using seniority as calculated in WAC 357-46-055 for general government employees and 357-46-053 for higher education employees. Employers with performance management confirmation may consider properly documented performance in addition to seniority. If performance is not considered, an employee's employment retention rating is equal to the employee's seniority.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-12-084, § 357-46-050, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05; 04-18-114, § 357-46-050, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-053 How is a higher education employee's seniority date determined? For higher education employees, the seniority date is determined in accordance with the employer's layoff procedure. The employer's layoff procedure must specify a uniform method for determining the seniority date for employees of the higher education institution or related board who are covered by the civil service rules. Employees on military leave as provided in WAC 357-31-370 must not have their seniority date adjusted for the time spent on military leave without pay.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-12-075, § 357-46-053, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-055 How is a general government employee's seniority date determined? (1) For a full-time general government employee, the seniority date is the employee's most recent date of hire into state service as adjusted for any period of leave without pay which exceeds fifteen consecutive calendar days except when the leave without pay is taken for:

- (a) Military leave as provided in WAC 357-31-370;
- (b) Compensable work-related injury or illness leave;
- (c) Government service leave not to exceed two years and one month;
- (d) Educational leave, contingent upon successful completion of the coursework; and/or
- (e) Reducing the effects of layoff.
- (f) When an employee is on leave without pay for more than fifteen consecutive calendar days and the absence is not due to one of the reasons listed above, the employee's seniority date must be moved forward in an amount equal to the number of calendar days on leave without pay.

(2) For a part-time general government employee, the seniority date is calculated by determining the number of actual hours worked and/or in paid status, excluding compensatory time off. Actual hours worked includes overtime hours regardless of whether or not the employee receives monetary payment or compensatory time for the hours worked. Time spent in leave without pay status is not credited unless the leave without pay is taken for:

- (a) Military leave as provided in WAC 357-31-370;
- (b) Compensable work-related injury or illness leave;
- (c) Government service leave not to exceed two years and one month;
- (d) Educational leave, contingent upon successful completion of the coursework; and/or
- (e) Reducing the effects of layoff.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 09-11-063, § 357-46-055, filed 5/14/09, effective 6/16/09; 05-08-135, § 357-46-055, filed 4/6/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-056 How does a general government employee's seniority as of June 30, 2005 transfer under Title 357 WAC? A general government employee's unbroken service date as of June 30, 2005 will become the employee's seniority date as of July 1, 2005. From July 1, 2005 forward, any adjustments to the seniority date for leave without pay must be in accordance with WAC 357-46-055.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-08-135, § 357-46-056, filed 4/6/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-057 When is an employee considered to have a break in state service? An employee has a break in his/her continuous state service if the employee is separated, dismissed, or resigns from state service. A furlough for the purposes of temporary layoff as provided in WAC 357-46-063 is not considered a break in continuous state service.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-12-073, § 357-46-057, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05.]

[Ch. 357-46 WAC—p. 4]

WAC 357-46-058 Is a general government employee who is rehired following layoff considered to have had a break in state service? (1) A general government employee laid off in accordance with the provisions of WAC 357-46-010 or 357-58-445 is not considered to have had a break in continuous state service if within two years of separation the employee is appointed to a position.

(2) Upon appointment, a general government employee is reinstated with the anniversary and unbroken service dates the employee had at the time of layoff. A full-time general government employee is given full-time credit toward seniority for the time spent off the payroll due to layoff. As provided in WAC 357-46-055(2) a part-time general government employee's seniority is calculated by determining the number of actual hours worked and/or in paid status, therefore a part-time employee shall not receive seniority credit for the time spent off the payroll due to layoff.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 09-23-059, § 357-46-058, filed 11/12/09, effective 12/15/09; 09-11-063, § 357-46-058, filed 5/14/09, effective 6/16/09; 05-12-073, § 357-46-058, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-059 Is a higher education employee who is rehired following layoff considered to have had a break in state service? (1) A higher education employee laid off in accordance with the provisions of WAC 357-46-010 or 357-58-445 is not considered to have had a break in continuous state service if within two years of separation the employee is appointed to a position:

- (a) From a layoff list; or
- (b) As a promotional candidate in accordance with the employer's promotional policy.

(2) Upon appointment, the higher education employee is reinstated with the seniority and unbroken service the employee had at the time of layoff. Time spent off the payroll due to layoff is treated as leave without pay. Each higher education employer's layoff procedure will define how seniority and unbroken service dates are adjusted for periods of leave without pay.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 09-23-059, § 357-46-059, filed 11/12/09, effective 12/15/09.]

WAC 357-46-060 Does a veteran receive any preference in layoff? (1) An eligible veteran receives a preference by having their seniority increased. This is done by adding the eligible veteran's total active military service, not to exceed five years, to their unbroken service date.

(2) An eligible veteran is defined as any permanent employee who:

- (a) Has one or more years in active military service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or who has less than one year's service and is discharged with a disability incurred in the line of duty or is discharged at the convenience of the government; and
- (b) Has received, upon termination of such service:
 - (i) An honorable discharge;
 - (ii) A discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record; or
 - (iii) A release from active military service with evidence of service other than that for which an undesirable, bad conduct, or dishonorable discharge is given.

(1/24/12)

(3) "An eligible veteran" does not include any person who as a veteran voluntarily retired, as evidenced by the "DD Form 214" or other official military records, with twenty or more years' active military service and has military retirement pay in excess of five hundred dollars per month.

(4) The surviving spouse or surviving registered domestic partner of an eligible veteran is entitled to veteran's seniority preference for up to five years as outlined in subsection (1) and (2) of this section regardless of whether the veteran had at least one year of active military service.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 10-11-073, § 357-46-060, filed 5/14/10, effective 6/15/10; 09-17-056 and 09-18-113, § 357-46-060, filed 8/13/09 and 9/2/09, effective 12/3/09; 05-12-077, § 357-46-060, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05; 04-18-114, § 357-46-060, filed 9/1/04, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-063 May an employer temporarily lay-off an employee? For any of the reasons specified in WAC 357-46-010, an employer may temporarily layoff an employee by:

(1) Reducing the number of hours an employee is scheduled to work; or

(2) Furloughing the employee.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-12-074, § 357-46-063, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-064 Are there any limits to temporary layoff? Under the provisions of WAC 357-46-063, an employer may not:

(1) Furlough an employee for more than thirty calendar days in a calendar year; or

(2) Temporarily reduce an employee's regular work schedule to less than twenty hours a week for more than sixty calendar days in a calendar year.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-12-074, § 357-46-064, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-065 Under the provisions of temporary layoff, what happens if an employer has less than twenty hours per week of work for an employee to perform? If an employer has less than twenty hours per week of work for an employee to perform during a period of temporary layoff, the employer must notify the employee that he/she is being furloughed. The employer may then offer the available work hours to the employee as a nonpermanent appointment under the provisions of WAC 357-19-360 or temporary appointment under the provisions of WAC 357-19-435.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 41.06 RCW. 05-12-074, § 357-46-065, filed 5/27/05, effective 7/1/05.]

WAC 357-46-066 What is the notice requirement to temporarily layoff an employee? An employer must provide the employee seven calendar days' notice of temporary layoff. The temporary layoff notice must inform the employee of their status during temporary layoff and the expected duration of the temporary layoff. Notice of temporary layoff may be provided by using alternative methods as described in WAC 357-04-105.

For example:

The employer has determined that July 12th will be a temporary layoff day. The employee's regular work schedule is 6:00 p.m. to 3:00 a.m. Sunday through Thursday. The employer must determine if the employee's temporary layoff will occur for the shift which begins at 6:00 p.m. on July 11th or the shift that begins at 6:00 p.m. on July 12th.

WMS employees only have layoff list rights to classes which the highest step of the salary range is equal to or below the WMS salary at the time of layoff or notification of layoff.

(b) Employees who accept a voluntary demotion in lieu of layoff are eligible to be on the internal layoff list for the class from which they demoted and classes at that salary range and lower salary ranges in which the employee held permanent status and lower classes in the same class series. Permanent status is not required for the lower classes in the class series. Washington management service (WMS) employees who accept a voluntary demotion in lieu of layoff are eligible to be on the internal layoff list for classes in which they held permanent status. WMS employees only have layoff list rights to classes which the highest step of the salary range is equal to or below the WMS salary at the time of the demotion.

(c) Employees who accepted less than comparable positions as defined by the employer's layoff procedure are eligible to be on the internal layoff list for classes in which they held permanent status at the same or lower salary range and lower classes in the same class series. (e) Employees who remain in a position reallocated to a lower salary range are eligible to be on the internal layoff list for the class the employee held permanent status in prior to the reallocation.

(2) Employees who have been demoted for cause from a class are not eligible to be on the internal layoff list for that class.

(3) General government employees have layoff list rights to all classifications the employee has held permanent status in regardless of any breaks in state service.

Permanent status is not required in the lower classes in the same class series. General government employees have statewide layoff list rights to classes in which they held permanent status which are at a higher salary range and lower classes in the same class series. Higher education employees do not have access to the statewide layoff list for higher level classes unless the employer's layoff procedure allows.
