WAC 478-156-011 Purpose of residence halls, single student and family housing apartments. The residence halls, single student and family housing apartments exist primarily to provide a conveniently located living environment for university students which will contribute to their educational development.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.15.031 and 28B.20.130. WSR 13-03-085, § 478-156-011, filed 1/15/13, effective 2/15/13. Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.20.130. WSR 97-24-048, § 478-156-011, filed 11/26/97, effective 12/27/97; Order 72-6, § 478-156-011, filed 11/6/72.]

(1/15/13)

WAC 478-156-012 Modification of these rules. The board of regents reserves the right to add, delete, or modify portions of these rules in accordance with its rules and applicable laws.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.20.130. WSR 97-24-048, § 478-156-012, filed 11/26/97, effective 12/27/97; Order 72-6, § 478-156-012, filed 11/6/72.]

WAC 478-156-013 Priority for residence halls and single student apartments. Priority for use of residence hall space and single student apartments is given to enrolled students at the University of Washington, Seattle.

Priority for use of any remaining housing space is specific to each residence hall or apartment building. Up-to-date information pertaining to residence hall and single student apartment use priority is available on the University of Washington, Seattle housing and food services' web site.

Subject to space availability, the following may be granted residence privileges in the order of their applications after the needs of enrolled students have been fulfilled:

(1) Participants in university-sponsored short courses, conferences, and state tests and examinations.

(2) Visiting scholars sponsored by academic departments.

(3) Students attending nearby community colleges.

(4) On a transient basis, visiting students from other institutions, visiting faculty members and guests of student residents.

(5) Other groups when approved by the committee on the use of university facilities.

(6) Other groups or individuals approved by housing and food services, on a space available basis.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.15.031 and 28B.20.130. WSR 13-03-085, § 478-156-013, filed 1/15/13, effective 2/15/13. Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.20.130. WSR 97-24-048, § 478-156-013, filed 11/26/97, effective 12/27/97; Order 72-6, § 478-156-013, filed 11/6/72.]

WAC 478-156-016 Family housing apartments—Assignment and unit size eligibility. Residents must be enrolled as full-time students at the University of Washington three of the four quarters of an academic year, and be married couples; registered, same-sex domestic partners (that is, the partnerships are registered with the state of Washington or other jurisdictions where domestic partner registrations are offered); or single parents with dependent children. In addition, financial eligibility must be verified prior to move-in for those students in priority groups (1) through (3), which are described in WAC 478-156-017. The office of student financial aid will update financial need figures for family housing eligibility and will evaluate the resources of each new applicant to determine if their requirements for financial assistance exceed the established need figures. Separate financial need figures are established for each unit size. Any expenses related to the processing of the financial aid form will be borne by the applicant or the current resident. Assignment eligibility criteria for each unit size of university-owned housing is specific to the property and outlined on the University of Washington, Seattle housing and food services web site.

Changes to these eligibility criteria shall be approved through the office of the vice-president and vice-provost for student life after consultation with student leadership from the Associated Students of the University of Washington (ASUW) and the Graduate and Professional Student Senate (GPSS).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.15.031 and 28B.20.130. WSR 13-03-085, § 478-156-016, filed 1/15/13, effective 2/15/13. Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.20.130. WSR 97-24-048, § 478-156-016, filed 11/26/97, effective 12/27/97. Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.20.130(1).
