

WAC 100-100-900 Logo use. Pending final adoption of complete guidelines for the use of the Centennial logo adopted November 11, 1985, all uses, reproductions and imprints of the logo by parties other than the commission, or news media for illustrative purposes only, shall be solely by written authorization of the executive secretary. All interested parties must apply for and receive such written authorization prior to any logo use. Any reference to the logo in this chapter shall include the full design and any and all of its component parts, including design and color.
