

WAC 110-700-0010 When are background checks required? JRA must conduct background checks on prospective employees, volunteers, and individual contracted service providers who will have regular access to juveniles. Background checks may be conducted on prospective employees, volunteers, and individual contracted service providers who will have limited access to juveniles.

(1) Procedures must be established in order to investigate and determine suitability of a person in a position who will have regular access or limited access to juveniles.

(2) Employees, volunteers or individual contracted service providers who are authorized for regular access do not require the presence of another person cleared through the designated background check process during the performance of their duties.

(3) The presence of another person cleared through the designated background check process is required for people authorized to have limited access to juveniles.
