

WAC 172-141-020 Scope. The regulations contained in this chapter apply to all first amendment activities, as defined below, occurring in open areas on university property. These regulations do not apply to first amendment activities inside of a university facility or off campus. University buildings, rooms, and athletic fields may be rented and/or reserved for nonuniversity purposes in accordance with chapter 172-137 WAC.

This chapter does not apply to the area surrounding the university house. The university house is primarily a personal residence and is not open to the public. It is accessible by invitation only and is not a designated area for public expression. Rallies, demonstrations, and other forms of public expression are not permitted at any time on the grounds of the university house. Given the nature of the university house as a residential home, any assembly or advocacy may not occur within the fenced area surrounding the university house or within one hundred feet of any door on the house.
