

WAC 284-17-306 Grounds for revocation or suspension of approval of an insurance continuing education course. (1) Approval of a continuing education course may be suspended or revoked if the commissioner concludes that any of the following has occurred:

(a) The continuing education provider significantly changes the content of an approved course without notice to and prior approval from the commissioner;

(b) A continuing education provider issues a certificate of completion to a person who did not complete the course;

(c) A continuing education provider changes the approved instruction method without the prior approval of the commissioner;

(d) The commissioner finds that the actual instruction of the course is inadequate; or

(e) Within fifteen days after the date of the commissioner's request, the continuing education provider fails to supply continuing education course attendance or completion records, course materials, or other records requested to resolve a consumer inquiry.

(2) Reinstatement of approval is at the sole discretion of the commissioner and is conditioned upon receipt of satisfactory proof that the continuing education provider has corrected the conditions responsible for the suspension.
