

WAC 388-71-06060 What is the purpose of the referral registry?

The purpose of the referral registry is to help consumers find individual providers of personal care or respite care by maintaining a list of prescreened providers. The referral registry:

- (1) Takes into account the consumer's needs and preferences when identifying potential individual providers;
- (2) Is voluntary for providers and consumers;
- (3) Promotes job opportunities for providers;
- (4) Provides access to the database for consumers who want to search for a provider; and
- (5) Increases a consumer's choice through an established pool of available providers on the registry.
