

WAC 388-71-1051 Can DSHS deny or terminate a contract with an instructor or training entity? (1) DSHS may determine not to accept an offer by a person or organization seeking a contract with DSHS to conduct training programs. No administrative remedies are available to dispute DSHS' decision not to accept an offer, except as may be provided through the contracting process.

(2) DSHS may terminate an existing training contract in accordance with the terms of the contract. The contractor's administrative remedies shall be limited to those specified in the contract.
