

WAC 390-16-232 Same office last sought. A candidate is considered to be seeking the "same office last sought," as that term is used in RCW 42.17A.430, when the candidate seeks:

- (1) The identical office last sought; or
- (2) A different position or seat of the same office last sought within the same jurisdiction; or
- (3) The same office, whether a different seat or position, in a revised district or political subdivision whenever the boundaries of a district or political subdivision are officially altered through re-districting, consolidation or other official procedure.
