- WAC 415-112-41301 Are vehicle allowances earnable compensation? (1)(a) Plan 1. Vehicle allowances may be earnable compensation for Plan 1 members according to this section.

  (b) Plans 2 and 3. Vehicle allowances are not earnable compensation.
- (b) Plans 2 and 3. Vehicle allowances are not earnable compensation for members of Plans 2 and 3. Subsections (2) through (5) of this section apply to Plan 1 members only.
  - (2) For TRS Plan 1:
- (a) A vehicle allowance is not earnable compensation if it is received in lieu of expenses you incur or expect to incur in using your own vehicle for business purposes.
- (b) A vehicle allowance qualifies as earnable compensation to the extent that it exceeds your actual expenses. For instance, if you receive both a vehicle allowance and separate reimbursement for vehicle expenses each time you use a privately owned vehicle for business purposes, the vehicle allowance is earnable compensation.
- (3) To prove that your vehicle allowance exceeded your actual expenses, your employer must maintain ongoing monthly records, documenting:
- (a) The dates, if any, on which you used a privately owned vehicle in performing services for your employer;
  - (b) The miles you drove the vehicle on each of these trips;
  - (c) Your itinerary for each of these trips; and
- (d) The amount of the allowance LESS the actual expenses, using IRS methodology. Under the IRS methodology, your actual expenses are the miles you drove multiplied by the IRS rate.
- (i) The miles you drove are the number of miles you drove a privately owned vehicle for business purposes during the month.
- (ii) "IRS rate" means the Internal Revenue Service mileage rate for use by taxpayers computing the value of the use of a vehicle.
- (4) If a vehicle allowance exceeds your actual expenses, your employer must report the excess, calculated in subsection (3)(d) of this section.
- (5) If any part of a vehicle allowance is included in the calculation of your retirement allowance, your employer will be billed for excess compensation under RCW 41.50.150.
