

WAC 491-04-250 Do I have to file any paperwork after the hearing? After the hearing, all parties may file a post-hearing brief. A post-hearing brief restates your position, what you believe the board's decision should be, and what evidence presented supports that decision.

(1) Post-hearing briefs shall be served to the board and all involved parties no later than thirty (30) days after the hearing.

(2) If any party wants to prepare a response to the post-hearing briefs, he/she may serve such a response to the board and all involved parties within thirty days (30) of the post-hearing brief due date. Responses are not required.
