

WAC 495D-142-050 The role of the president in first amendment decisions. The president of the college or designee may at any time, terminate, cancel or prohibit the event if it is determined, after proper inquiry, that the event does constitute or will constitute a clear and present danger to the college's orderly operation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). WSR 18-04-101, § 495D-142-050, filed 2/6/18, effective 3/9/18.]