

WAC 172-90-030 Standard of proof. The standard of proof for cases of academic integrity violations is a preponderance of the evidence which is satisfied when the evidence indicates that it is more likely than not that the accused person actually committed the violation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.35.120(12). WSR 14-20-082, § 172-90-030, filed 9/29/14, effective 10/30/14.]