

WAC 240-20-042 Public records officer. The committee's public records shall be in the charge of the clerk of the committee, who shall be designated the public records officer for the committee. The person so designated shall be officed in the department of transportation office in Olympia, Washington. The public records officer shall be responsible for implementation of the committee's rules and regulations regarding public access to information and records.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 47.66 RCW. WSR 94-10-030 and 94-11-081, § 240-20-042, filed 4/28/94 and 5/16/94, effective 5/1/94 and 5/16/94.]