

WAC 246-454-110 Uniformly applicable interpretive rulings and minor manual modifications. (1) The department is authorized to make uniformly applicable interpretive rulings with respect to matters contained in the manual. The department is also authorized to correct typographical and coding errors as well as make other minor organizational modifications when such corrections and modifications appear to be necessary.

(2) Any such interpretive ruling, correction, or modification shall be in writing and distributed as an attachment to a consecutively numbered transmittal. Such transmittal shall describe the changes in detail and shall include instructions regarding the placement of such material in the manual. Each hospital and manual holder of record shall be sent a copy of any such transmittal together with all attachments.
