

WAC 388-14A-4010 Can I make the division of child support stop collection action against me? (1) Once a noncustodial parent (NCP) fails to make payments when due, an administrative law judge may not stop collection action by DCS.

(2) The NCP may contest collection action by:

(a) Filing an action in superior court under RCW 74.20A.200 or other applicable statutes; or

(b) Requesting a conference board under WAC 388-14A-6400.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090. WSR 01-03-089, § 388-14A-4010, filed 1/17/01, effective 2/17/01.]
