

WAC 388-71-01230 Will APS notify anyone other than the alleged perpetrator of the substantiated initial finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect? (1) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the vulnerable adult, witnesses, and reporter, APS may provide notification of a substantiated initial finding to:

- (a) Other divisions within the department;
- (b) The agency or program identified under RCW 74.34.068 with which the alleged perpetrator is associated as an employee, volunteer or contractor;
- (c) Law enforcement;
- (d) Other investigative authority consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW;
- (e) The facility in which the incident occurred; and
- (f) The appropriate licensing agency.

(2) In the notification APS will identify the finding as a substantiated initial finding.
