

WAC 132K-112-195 Persons eligible to vote. For the purposes of eligibility to vote, the term "faculty employee" means any full-time teacher, counselor, librarian, or division head, who is currently employed by Community College District No. 11 with the exception of those holding administrative appointments as defined by the board of trustees unless included as specified in WAC 132K-112-205. "Faculty employee" shall also mean any teacher, counselor, librarian, or division head who has been employed by the college less than fulltime for the previous two consecutive quarters, exclusive of summer quarters, except for those employed exclusively for community service courses.
