

WAC 132L-136-070 Limitations of use. (1) College facilities may not be used in ways which interfere with or are detrimental to the college's own instructional and educational programs.

(2) College facilities may not be used for commercial sales, advertising, or promotional activities except when such activities serve educational purposes of the college and are conducted under the sponsorship of a college department or office.

(3) Each group or organization which uses college facilities must abide by the policies and procedures for use as determined by the board of trustees and/or the college president and shall be subject to revocation of their privilege to use the facilities for failing to do so.

(4) The administration reserves the right to deny or cancel the use of facilities anytime the administration determines that such use or meeting interferes with or disrupts the instructional, educational or business functions of the college.
