

WAC 132V-15-010 General policy. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, is a federal law which requires institutions of higher education to establish written policies and guidelines governing the review, inspection, release, confidentiality and maintenance of students' educational records. Tacoma Community College hereby establishes the policies and guidelines in this chapter to comply with the intent of the act and to ensure that the educational records and personally identifiable information of its students are treated responsibly.
