

WAC 173-300-120 Fees. (1) For examinations, certifications, or renewals administered by the department:

(a) A fee of $50.00 for each examination administered by the department shall accompany the application for examination.

(b) After an applicant successfully completes the examination and is notified by the department of the results, the applicant shall pay a certification fee of $200.00 to the department within thirty days of the date of the results notification.

(c) A $200.00 renewal fee must accompany an application for certificate renewal.

(d) A fee of $50.00 is required to apply for consideration of certification through reciprocity under WAC 173-300-140. After determining that the reciprocal criteria has been met, the department will notify the applicant:

(i) That the applicant is deficient in a required area, and the process to correct the deficiency; or

(ii) That the applicant has successfully completed all requirements for certification and that the applicant must pay a certification fee of $200.00 to the department within thirty days of the date of notification.

(2) A $200.00 renewal fee must accompany an application for certificate renewal.
