

WAC 181-86-130 Issuance of order for reprimand, suspension, or revocation by superintendent of public instruction. Whenever the superintendent of public instruction takes action to suspend or revoke a certificate or reprimand an education practitioner, the superintendent of public instruction, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall issue an order of reprimand, suspension, or revocation to the affected education practitioner and shall provide such person a copy of applicable administrative appeal procedures provided in this chapter. If the order is to suspend or revoke a certificate and the superintendent of public instruction has knowledge that such education practitioner is employed within the common school system or by an approved private school, the superintendent of public instruction shall advise such employer that an order has been sent to the employee.
