

WAC 192-130-050 Notice of filing of application—RCW 50.20.150.

Whenever an individual files an initial application for unemployment benefits, or reopens a claim after subsequent employment, a notice will be sent to the applicant's most recent employer as stated by the applicant. Any employer who receives such a notice and has information which might make the applicant ineligible for benefits must report this information to the department as indicated on the notice. The information must be reported within five working days, plus reasonable mailing time, if any, beginning on the date the notice was sent. If the employer does not reply within this time frame, the department may allow benefits to the individual, if he or she is otherwise eligible.
