

WAC 308-124A-835 Courses completed in other jurisdictions. A course completed in another jurisdiction may be approved for clock hour credit if:

(1) The course was offered by a tax-supported, public technical or community college, or any other institution of higher learning, and the director determines that the course substantially satisfies the general requirements for course approval consistent with the intent of this chapter;

(2) The course was approved to satisfy an education requirement for real estate licensing or renewal and offered by an entity approved to offer the course by the real estate licensing agency in that jurisdiction; or

(3) If the director determines that the course substantially satisfies the general requirements for course approval consistent with the intent of this chapter.
