

WAC 388-827-0125 If DDA denies, reduces, or terminates a state supplementary payment, what may I do? (1) If the developmental disabilities administration (DDA) denies, reduces, or terminates a state supplementary payment, you may request an administrative hearing, an exception to rule under WAC 388-440-0001, or both.

(2) To request an administrative hearing, see WAC 388-825-120 through 388-825-165.

(3) To request an exception to rule, you must submit a written request for an exception to rule to the DDA regional administrator.

(4) DDA may grant an exception to any requirement in this chapter if the assistant secretary decides that the facts of your case justify an exception to rule.

(5) DDA must notify you in writing of the assistant secretary's decision no later than sixty days after the regional administrator received your request for an exception to rule.

(6) You do not have the right to challenge at an administrative hearing the assistant secretary's decision regarding your request for an exception to rule. You may have a hearing right under WAC 388-825-120.
