

(Effective until May 1, 2023)

WAC 246-341-0744 Outpatient services—Information and assistance services—Substance use disorder services—General. Information and assistance services are considered nontreatment substance use disorder services provided to support an individual who has a need for interventions related to substance use.

(1) Information and assistance services include:

- (a) Alcohol and drug information school;
- (b) Information and crisis services; and
- (c) Emergency service patrol.

(2) Substance use disorder information and assistance services are not required to meet the requirements under WAC 246-341-0640.

(3) An agency providing information and assistance services must maintain and provide a list of resources, including self-help groups and referral options, that can be used by staff members to refer an individual to appropriate services.
