

WAC 139-03-045 Prehearing conferences. The presiding officer shall hold one or more prehearing conferences in each case, which may be held telephonically and shall be attended by the parties or their attorneys. The parties shall be prepared to discuss the timing and filing of any motions, and witness and exhibit lists, as well as the need for discovery, in addition to those matters identified in WAC 10-08-130(1). A prehearing order shall be issued at the conclusion of the conference.
