

WAC 192-140-220 What happens if I do not respond to a request for information about my corporate officer status? If you do not respond to a request for information about your corporate officer status, the department will presume you are not unemployed and benefits will be denied under RCW 50.04.310. This denial will continue until you show you are unemployed as defined under RCW 50.04.310.
