

WAC 192-800-105 When and how can an administrative law judge dispose of an appeal? (1) The presiding administrative law judge may dispose of any appeal through:

- (a) An order approving a withdrawal of appeal;
- (b) A consent order; or
- (c) An order of default.

(2) There will be no petition for review rights from an order approving a withdrawal of appeal or a consent order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 50A.04.215. WSR 19-23-090, § 192-800-105, filed 11/19/19, effective 12/20/19.]