

WAC 246-841A-485 Voluntary closure of an approved nursing assistant training program. When an approved program plans to close, it shall notify the commission in writing, stating the reason and the date of intended closing.

(1) The program shall notify the commission in writing at least 30 days in advance and complete all current class(es) in session prior to closing.

(2) In the event of an emergency or unexpected event which renders the program inoperable, the program will ensure a transition plan for students to complete their training.
